Parliament. House of Commons, 1904 Specialized Administrative Law of the European Union Herwig C. H. Hofmann, Gerard C. Rowe, Alexander H. Türk, 2018-11-30 This volume deals with the law governing the administrative implementation of European Union public policy Much of this law is specific to individual policy sectors The volume provides a study of such specialized administrative law for more than twenty sectors This cross sectoral approach allows for detailed comparisons of EU administration in diverse policy fields It identifies situations where legal structures and approaches may be unnecessarily duplicated thus indicating where a comprehensive general system could be advantageous for both Union law and policy achievement The comparative nature of the study also draws attention to policy fields which have proven to be testing grounds for approaches adopted subsequently in other areas In addition the work highlights the distinctive highly networked and strongly cooperative character of EU administration as a reflection of and a foundation for the operative nature of the European Union as a whole Complex Political Decision-Making Peter Bursens, Christ'l De Landtsheer, Luc Braeckmans, Barbara Segaeert, 2016-11-18 Political and societal elites are increasingly confronted with complex environments in which they need to take collective decisions Decision makers are faced with policy issues situated at different intertwined levels which need to be negotiated with different actors The negotiation and decision making processes raise issues of legitimacy leadership and communication Modern societal systems are not only affected by horizontal specialization and diversity but also by a vertical expansion of governance layers The national level is no longer the sole or even the most important level of governance In these complex environments cognitive abilities and personalities of political and societal elites have gained importance This book addresses the impact of an increasingly complex environment on the legitimacy and transparency of politics on the role of leadership and political personality and on motivated images rhetoric and communication Examining how these issues interact at the macro and theoretical level the types of problems decision makers face and how they communicate ideas with their audiences it brings together leading experts in political psychology law and political science to bridge the gap in the way these disciplines explore the issue of complex decision making

The Images of the Consumer in EU Law Dorota Leczykiewicz, Stephen Weatherill, 2016-01-28 This book consists of contributions exploring from different perspectives the images of the consumer in EU law The images of the consumer form the foundation for various EU policies more or less directly oriented towards the goal of consumer protection The purpose of the volume is to establish what visions of the consumer there are in different contexts of EU law whether they are consistent and whether EU law's engagement with consumer related considerations is sincere or merely instrumental to the achievement of other goals The chapters discuss how consumers should be protected in EU contract competition free movement and trade mark law They reflect on the limits of the consumer empowerment rationale as the basis for EU consumer policy The chapters look also at the variety of concerns consumers might have including the cost of goods and services access to credit ethical questions of consumption the challenges of excessive choice and the possibility to influence the content of regulatory measures and explore the significance of these issues for the EU's legislative and judicial process

The Mutual Review of Development Effectiveness in Africa 2015 Promise and Performance OECD, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, 2015-11-03 In order to maintain the strong progress achieved since 2000 and meet Africa's longer term challenges it is important for both African governments and their international partners to meet their development commitments and to monitor and evaluate their results

A 'Macro-regional' Europe in the Making Stefan Gänzle, Kristine Kern, 2015-10-19 Macro regional strategies seek to improve the interplay of the EU with existing regimes and institutions and foster coherence of transnational policies Drawing on macro regional governance and Europeanization this edited volume provides an overview of processes of macro regionalization in Europe displaying evidence of their significant impact
