Kite Building Lesson Plan:

I Am a Muslim: A Modern Storybook Susan Douglass, 1995-01-01 This unit is built around a set of paired stories one from the Qur'an or authentic traditions and one related modern story The overall objectives are 1 to awaken the children's awareness of their identity and worth as Muslims 2 to model Islamic behavior patterns and 3 to cultivate a sense of identification and community with Muslims of long ago and in other parts of the modern world While the unit is designed for kindergarten its stories and activities may be useful for values instruction throughout the primary grades in a variety of instructional settings including full time weekend and home schools This unit emphasizing values education may also be useful in Muslim parenting classes Each lesson consists of the story pair to be presented to the children orally or dramatically and suggested discussion guidelines and activities through which the values and related behaviors are developed and reinforced in the children's understanding The 15 lessons are intended to implement teaching objectives in various units taught in a typical Islamic kindergarten social studies curriculum on a selective or exhaustive basis throughout the year

Expanding Notions of Assessment for Learning Bronwen Cowie, Judy Moreland, Kathrin Otrrel-Cass, 2013-02-11 Assessment for learning AfL is bound up with students becoming autonomous lifelong learners who are active participants in the classroom and beyond This book explores teacher and student experiences of AfL interactions in primary science and technology classrooms Working from a sociocultural perspective the book's fundamental premise is that AfL has a contribution to make to students developing identities as accomplished learners and knowers The focus is on understanding and enhancing teacher practices that align with the spirit of AfL The following points are illustrated AfL interactions are multifaceted multimodal and take place over multiple time scales Student learning autonomy is promoted when teachers provide opportunities for students to exercise agency within a system of accountabilities Teacher pedagogical content knowledge plays a pivotal role in teachers being able to respond to students Productive AfL interactions are reflective of the way a particular discipline generates and warrants knowledge The book will be of interest to teachers and educational researchers who want to examine AfL from a theoretical and a practical perspective

Teaching Multicultural Children's Literature in a Diverse Society AnnMarie Alberton Gunn, Susan, V. Bennett, 2023-03-28 This textbook is a comprehensive resource for teaching multicultural children's literature Providing foundational information on how and why to integrate diverse children's literature into the classroom this book presents a necessary historical perspective on cultural groups in the United States and context for how to teach children's literature in a way that reflects and sustains students' rich cultural backgrounds The historical insights and context on diverse cultural groups at the heart of the book allow readers to deepen their understanding of why teaching about cultural diversity is necessary for effective and inclusive education Part I offers foundational information on how to teach children's literature in a diverse society and Part II overviews pedagogy resources and guidance for teaching specific culturally and linguistically marginalized groups Each chapter contains book
