Mistake Siren Publishing Classic:

James Joyce and Classical Modernism Leah Culligan Flack, 2020-02-06 James Joyce and Classical Modernism contends that the classical world animated Joyce's defiant innovative creativity and cannot be separated from what is now recognized as his modernist aesthetic. Responding to a long standing critical paradigm that has viewed the classical world as a means of granting a coherent order shape and meaning to Joyce's modernist innovations Leah Flack explores how and why Joyce's fiction deploys the classical as the language of the new. This study tracks Joyce's sensitive on going readings of classical literature from his earliest work at the turn of the twentieth century through to the appearance of Ulysses in 1922 the watershed year of high modernist writing. In these decades Joyce read ancient and modern literature alongside one another to develop what Flack calls his classical modernist aesthetic which treats the classical tradition as an ally to modernist innovation. This aesthetic first comes to full fruition in Ulysses which self consciously deploys the classical tradition to defend stylistic experimentation as a way to resist static paralyzing notions of the past. Analysing Joyce's work through his career from his early essays Flack ends by considering the rich afterlives of Joyce's classical modernist project with particular attention to contemporary works by Alison Bechdel and Maya Lang. The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Editor & Publisher, 1926 The fourth estate The Publisher, 1914 A Medieval Book of Beasts Willene B.
