Mining Tsar the Life And Times Of Leslie Urquhart:

Mining Tsar Kett Howard Kennedy, 1986-01 Reflecting Imperial Overstretch and New Realities Brian O'Sullivan, 2024-07-03 This book is the first comprehensive history of the British Trade Corporation which was constituted under a Royal Charter on 21st April 1917. Its charter was meant to last for sixty years but in 1926, after a turbulent existence of only nine years, it was amalgamated with the Anglo Austrian Bank and absorbed into the Anglo International Bank. The corporation, together with its two main subsidiaries, the Levant Company and the National Bank of Turkey, conducted business not only in Britain but in Russia, Turkey, the Middle East, and in Continental Europe. Although the corporation was not an agent of empire, it reflected Britain's imperialistic ambitions after the First World War. As a result, it invested in some of the most unstable regions of the world. It was also severely affected by British foreign policy, which was often misjudged and at times duplicitous, resulting in serious damage to British trade. Within five years of its launch, the British Trade Corporation needed to be refinanced. The economic downturn in the early 1920s and ongoing hostilities in Eastern Europe and the Near East meant that it struggled to survive. Its difficulties reflected many of those faced by Britain in general after the war and the need to come to terms with the new realities of the post-war world. Despite its innovative attempt to address the perceived deficiencies in Britain's financial system, especially in respect of industrial finance, the British Trade Corporation has been largely ignored by financial historians. Based on substantial archival research, this book rectifies this neglect and makes an important contribution to the financial history of interwar Britain.

On Arbitration Samuel Wordsworth, Marie Veeder, 2023-08-29 This volume brings together the most important articles, lectures, and essays of Van Vechten Johnny Veeder, a towering figure in the worlds of international commercial arbitration and arbitration between States and foreign investors. As noted by Judge Stephen Schwebel in his introduction to the volume, Johnny Veeder was unsurpassed as an arbitrator, tribunal chairman, expositor, analyst, and historian of international arbitration. The writings in this collection address a wide range of topics in the field, including the historical context of international arbitration and its influence on the modern day practice, the role and responsibilities of the arbitrator, and the principles upholding international arbitration. The included works span the length of Johnny's career, drawing on his extensive learning and practical engagement. They analyse the past and present while asking prescient questions about arbitration's future in a changing global context. The reader of Johnny's essays and other contributions will profit by his extraordinary legal insight and by the breadth and depth of his devotion to the arbitral process. The volume also gives a sense of his humanity, of his warmth and wit. Loved by his colleagues, his students, and indeed all those who came to know him, this volume is in celebration of the extraordinary achievements of this remarkable jurist, teacher, and human being.

The Forgotten Fifties John Murphy, Judith Smart, 1997 Some of Australia's leading historians present new perspectives on social and cultural life in the 1950s The 1950s is usually treated in the popular media as a metaphor for an Australia that was complacent monocultural banal and domesticated On the other hand historical writing about the decade has long been dominated by accounts of political and foreign policy conflict the Labor Split the Cold War and the seemingly endless long summer of Robert Menzies This collection assembles some of Australia's leading historians to present new perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s. They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia. The Man from Asarco Donald Chaput, 1992 Down Under Arvi Parbo, 1992 An illustrated history of mining and metallurgy in Australia New Zealand Fiji and Papua New Guinea Newcastle Coal and steel from the Illawarra Cobar copper Broken Hill Coal from the Bowen Basin Copper and lead Manganese from Groote Eylandt Gold and copper from Tennant Creek Gold brings prosperity to Western Australia Murchison gold Iron ore oil and gas from the Pilbara Coal and mineral sands South Australia's wealth in copper Port Pirie Iron and steel from Whyalla Victoria's gold Brown coal Fijian gold Copper and gold from Ok Tedi Business Archives, 1985 The Business Archives Council Newsletter, 1986 Who's who in Australia, 2002 Technology and Culture, 1989 A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences, 1931 Vols 1-4 include material to June 1 1929 Australian National Bibliography, 1986 Who's who of Australian Writers, 1995 International Affairs, 1987 International Books in Print, 1997 British and American Commercial Relations with Soviet Russia, 1918-1924 Christine A.
