Karoo Boy Troy Blacklaws, 2004 His family shattered by a freak accident that ended the life of his twin brother Douglas moves with his mother to a tiny backwater town in the semi desert Karoo region where he befriends an adventurous girl and an elderly garage worker A first novel Original Karoo Boy Troy Blacklaws, 2013-03-26 DIVDIV Troy Blacklaws s acclaimed debut novel is the remarkable story of a boy coming of age in the wake of tragedy divDIV When his twin brother dies in a freak accident Douglas s life begins to unravel His mother leaves his father taking Douglas with her to live in the Karoo region a harsh desert landscape that is a far cry from Cape Town and the seaside life Douglas has always known In this small village that is wary of outsiders he makes two friends who change his life forever a beautiful girl named Marika and an old man named Moses Immersed in rich language and vivid detail and set against the backdrop of 1970s South Africa Karoo Boy is the story of a young man finding his way in the midst of chaos and loss divDIV div div Trauma, Memory, and

Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel , 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here
