We have lost our way Many people struggle to find not just who they are but where they're going Today the choices are seemingly endless and vast making the discovery of one's purpose more confusing and difficult Or so it may seem Men and women are able to choose from so much more of what the world can offer As a result people often find that what they choose may be practical but not fulfilling We often choose what will bring us the most income and financial rewards which is indeed important but often at the expense of our passions and dreams if we even know what our passions and dreams are People are seeking happiness when what they really want is peace and contentment Happiness is circumstantial and fleeting Peace and contentment are sustainable and are developed through meeting our core longing for purpose Codes of relativism and situational ethics have especially clouded our sense of purpose Yet there is an answer for us to return to our true sense of purpose With standards comes a strong stable sense of direction The more we distance ourselves from God the less we know ourselves and the more confused we are The reason for our existence as God has designed is directly tied to our purpose Come and explore and let the truth set you free      The Developing Person Through the Life Span Richard Otto Straub,Kathleen Stassen Berger,Joan Winer Brown,1994      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      Developing Person Through the Life Span 10e & Achieve Read & Practice for Developing Person Through the Life Span (Six-Months Access) [With Access Code] Kathleen Stassen Berger,2018-08-09
