Bean, 2021-09-23 The newly revised and updated fourth edition of Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted is an excellent introduction to gifted education and real world learning The chapters of this comprehensive textbook are written by respected leaders in the field of gifted education The authors review the unique needs of gifted learners and give current information on instructional planning and evaluation strategies for best practices and ongoing enhancement and support of gifted programs Chapters include topics such as differentiated curricular design extending learning through research writing challenging instructional units and developing leadership skills and innovative thinkers Instructional practices such as problem based learning technology literacy independent study simulation and gaming and more are addressed A special focus is given to using the Gifted Education

Programming Standards and Common Core State Standards The fourth edition provides updated information on funding sources and public relations strategies for gifted education programs It also includes updated lists of books teaching materials websites and other resources for teachers of the gifted Making the Grade: Grades 7-8 Kaplan InterActive,1997

Parent's Guide to the North Carolina Tests, 4th and 5th Grades Cynthia Johnson,Drew Johnson,2000 Features all the essential facts and expert advice parents need to help prepare their children for the North Carolina tests Kaplan Advantage ,2011 Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades Margaret J. Finders,Susan Hynds,2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers The Effective Teaching of Language Arts Donna E. Norton,1993 Field tested and backed by sound research this popular methods book provides readers with a broad background in language arts including assessment and instruction in the major areas of speaking listening writing and reading Thoroughly encompassing the back to basics movement and the trend toward literature based instruction it offers clearly developed methodologies and lessons and makes extensive use of children s actual language samples to illustrate ways literature can enhance the development of language arts skills Written by an award winning author the book focuses on material that embraces the needs of all learners linguistically different children multicultural children and children with learning disabilities and handicaps Emphasizing the importance of literature based strategies and the identification of literature that can be applied to each of the language arts it offers For Your Plan Book a special section at the end of most chapters which provides concrete ideas field tested lessons and unit plans teachers can take right into their classroom Literature chapters are now moved to the forefront of the book enabling instructors to place a greater emphasis on literature related language arts Strong methodologies in the composition chapters now encompass the writing process plus results of a five year composition study of the relationships between writing and literature Public school educators parents in home schooling and library personnel Personalized Learning in Gifted Education Todd Kettler,Cheryl Taliaferro,2022-02-16 Gifted students can exhibit extreme variance in both their abilities and their interests yet they are often treated within schools as one homogeneous specialized population Personalized Learning in Gifted Education helps educators strengthen their differentiation of both instruction and services for advanced students This book helps educators develop the specific gifts and talents of the gifted students they serve demonstrates how educators can utilize the wealth of data they have at their disposal provides a rationale and blueprint for a stronger more personalized approach to gifted education offers suggestions for both elementary and secondary schools Recommendations center around five features of personalized learning personalized learning plans project or problem based learning competency based progression through the curriculum criterion referenced assessments and multi year mentoring Educating English Learners Joyce W. Nutta,Carine Strebel,Kouider Mokhtari,Florin M. Mihai,Edwidge Crevecoeur Bryant,2020-07-29 In Educating English Learners Joyce W Nutta and her colleagues offer practical tools for helping schools and teachers successfully integrate English learners into mainstream classrooms Drawing on the One Plus model presented in their award winning book Preparing Every Teacher to Reach English Learners the authors now turn their attention to the needs of K 12 teachers who typically have two or three English learners in their classrooms English learners are not a homogenous group and the challenges they face vary tremendously Nutta and her colleagues present protocols and case studies to help pre service and in service teachers understand the needs of English learners in their classrooms and differentiate instruction and assessment accordingly Woven throughout the book are the stories of Gero Edith Tasir and Edgar four case study students of different ages backgrounds and levels of English proficiency The authors show how the protocols they provide can be applied to adapt sample lessons for students like these across a range of grade levels subject areas and pedagogical approaches Finally the authors show how the system can be applied school wide for a collaborative approach to meeting English learners needs Teaching Reading, Writing, and Study Strategies H. Alan Robinson,1983 The Computer in Reading and Language Arts Jay S. Blanchard,George E. Mason,1987 In this stimulating and readable book educators most of whom have long been involved in computer based literacy research efforts provide up to date information on computer based activities in reading and language arts These experts offer valuable goals and strategies for integrating computer technology into the reading language arts curriculum including suggestions for activities that should and should not be used They also address the basics of developing evaluating and using computer based reading instruction programs The unique benefits of computer technology to teach English as a second language writing skills and the reading process to early readers are thoroughly explored Innovative Uses of the Computer in the Language Arts Classroom Computerized readability assessment Reinforcement and instructional objectives Student interest profiles Class book files This exciting book in a broader sense corrects the failure by many to consider the literacy issues that invariably surround and govern computer use While the types of computer literacy environments differ the literacy requirements are still the same the computer and the user must communicate through text Thus The Computer in Reading and Language Arts provides essential understanding of the literacy requirements and environments involved in computer use The Child and the English Language Arts Mildred R.
