

“A Modest Proposal”

Like Jonathan Swift, your group will create your own “Modest Proposal.”

You are going to attack an evil you see in society today by creating a satirical “modest proposal” for its solution, something so outrageously horrifying that your audience will see at once the tragedy of the situation.

Remember: As Swift was, you might be attacked for insensitivity. Your moral outrage must be made clear by gross exaggeration. Think creatively and thoroughly, because your proposal will count as a major grade. You will present your proposals on _____!

Guidelines:

1. State your problem and why it's a problem?
2. State your solution.
3. By using logical, ethical, and emotional appeals, state how your solution solves the problem.
4. State the benefits for society, the everyday family, and even how it will benefit the “problem.”
5. State the disadvantages (if any) in a casual, melancholy way like Swift did.

Ideas: (However, you are not limited to these suggestions)

- Global warming
- War
- Gasoline/Oil
- Pollution
- World Hunger/Famine
- Disease
- Animal Extinction
- Genocide
- Crime
- Abuse- adult and child
- Welfare
- Poor economy

Four Ages of Understanding John Deely, 2020-07-20 This book redraws the intellectual map and sets the agenda in philosophy for the next fifty or so years By making the theory of signs the dominant theme in Four Ages of Understanding John Deely has produced a history of philosophy that is innovative original and complete The first full scale demonstration of the centrality of the theory of signs to the history of philosophy Four Ages of Understanding provides a new vantage point from which to review and reinterpret the development of intellectual culture at the threshold of globalization Deely examines the whole movement of past developments in the history of philosophy in relation to the emergence of contemporary semiotics as the defining moment of Postmodernism Beginning traditionally with the Pre Socratic thinkers of early Greece Deely gives an account of the development of the notion of signs and of the general philosophical problems and themes which give that notion a context through four ages Ancient philosophy covering initial Greek thought the Latin age philosophy in European civilization from Augustine in the 4th century to Poincaré in the 17th the Modern period beginning with Descartes and Locke and the Postmodern period beginning with Charles Sanders Peirce and continuing to the present Reading the complete history of philosophy in light of the theory of the sign allows Deely to address the work of thinkers never before included in a general history and in particular to overcome the gap between Ockham and Descartes which has characterized the standard treatments heretofore One of the essential features of the book is the way in which it shows how the theme of signs opens a perspective for seeing the Latin Age from its beginning with Augustine to the work of Poincaré as an indigenous development and organic unity under which all the standard themes of ontology and epistemology find a new resolution and place A magisterial general history of philosophy Deely's book provides both a strong background to semiotics and a theoretical unity between philosophy's history and its immediate future With Four Ages of Understanding Deely sets a new agenda for philosophy as a discipline entering the 21st century
