Regional Industrial Buying Guide ,2001 Leaving Care and the Transition to Adulthood Varda R. Mann-Feder,Martin Goyette,2019-02-25 The transition to adulthood is a longer and more complex process than it was just a few decades ago and a growing number of youth and young adults experience significant challenges in the establishment of an autonomous and independent lifestyle when compared to previous generations The particularly dismal outcomes for youth growing up in care are by now well documented and more recently a range of models have been proposed to help advance our understanding of these outcomes and how to forestall them Leaving Care and the Transition to Adulthood features cutting edge research and best practices that support adjustment across a range of domains for this population International in scope this book focuses on bringing together major advances that span the literature on transitioning to adulthood within the care system offering a unique and important contribution to the field Contraband Guides Paul H. D. Kaplan,2020-04-23 In his best selling travel memoir The Innocents Abroad Mark Twain punningly refers to the black man who introduces him to Venetian Renaissance painting as a contraband guide a term coined to describe fugitive slaves who assisted Union armies during the Civil War By means of this and similar case studies Paul H D Kaplan documents the ways in which American cultural encounters with Europe and its venerable artistic traditions influenced nineteenth century concepts of race in the United States Americans of the Civil War era were struck by the presence of people of color in European art and society and American artists and authors both black and white adapted and transformed European visual material to respond to the particular struggles over the identity of African Americans Taking up the work of both well and lesser known artists and writers such as the travel writings of Mark Twain and William Dean Howells the paintings of German American Emanuel Leutze the epistolary exchange between John Ruskin and Charles Eliot Norton newspaper essays written by Frederick Douglass and William J Wilson and the sculpture of freed slave Eugene Warburg Kaplan lays bare how racial attitudes expressed in mid nineteenth century American art were deeply inflected by European traditions By highlighting the contributions people of black African descent made to the fine arts in the United States during this period along with the ways in which they were represented Contraband Guides provides a fresh perspective on the theme of race in Civil War era American art It will appeal to art historians to specialists in African American studies and American studies and to general readers interested in American art and African American history Municipal Reference Guide ,1997 A Classified Catalogue of Works Published by Longmans, Green & Company ,1913 CRIMINAL PSYCHOLOGY Laurence Miller,2012-01-01 Criminal psychology is the application of the principles of normal and abnormal psychology to the understanding prediction and control of criminal behavior Criminal Psychology Nature Nurture Culture provides an in depth yet readable introduction to the foundations of criminal psychology as it is understood and practiced from the classroom to the courtroom The book is organized into five sections Part I examines the nature and origins of criminal behavior These chapters outline the role of psychology in the criminal justice system and review the biology psychology and sociology of crime to develop a naturalistic model of criminal behavior that can guide theory and practice in law enforcement criminal justice and forensic evaluation Part II examines the major classes of mental disorder that may be associated with criminal behavior including psychotic disorders mood disorders organic brain syndromes substance abuse and personality disorders Each chapter consists of a description of the syndrome followed by applications to law enforcement criminal justice and forensic mental health issues of competency sanity and criminal culpability Part III deals with death Topics include homicide serial murder mass homicide workplace and school violence and terrorism Part IV covers sexual offenses and crimes within the family including rape and sexual assault sex crimes against children child battery domestic violence and family homicide Part V discusses the psychological dynamics of a variety of common crimes such as stalking and harassment theft and robbery gang violence organized crime arson hate crimes victimology the psychology of corrections and the death penalty Each chapter contains explanatory tables and sidebars that illustrate the chapter's main topic with examples from real life cases and the media and explore controversies surrounding particular issues in criminal psychology such as criminal profiling sexual predator laws dealing with children who kill psychotherapy with incarcerated offenders and the use of designer defenses in court Grounded in thorough scholarship and written in a crisp engaging style this volume is the definitive handbook and reference source for forensic psychologists mental health practitioners attorneys judges law enforcement professionals and military personnel It will also serve as an authoritative core text for courses in forensic psychology criminology and criminal justice practice
