Radical Poetics and Secular Jewish Culture Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel Morris, 2010. This collection of essays is the first to address this often obscured dimension of modern and contemporary poetry: the secular Jewish dimension. Editors Daniel Morris and Stephen Paul Miller asked their contributors to address what constitutes radical poetry written by Jews, defined as secular, and whether or not there is a Jewish component or dimension to radical and modernist poetic practice in general. These poets and critics address these questions by exploring the legacy of those poets who preceded and influenced them: Stein, Zukofsky, Reznikoff, Oppen and Ginsberg among others.
