A Numerate Life John Allen Paulos, 2015-11-10 Employing intuitive ideas from mathematics this quirky meta memoir raises questions about our lives that most of us don't think to ask but arguably should What part of memory is reliable fact what part creative embellishment Which favorite presuppositions are unfounded which statistically biased By conjoining two opposing mindsets the suspension of disbelief required in storytelling and the skepticism inherent in the scientific method bestselling mathematician John Allen Paulos has created an unusual hybrid a composite of personal memories and mathematical approaches to re evaluating them Entertaining vignettes from Paulos's biography abound ranging from a bullying math teacher and a fabulous collection of baseball cards to romantic crushes a grandmother's petty larceny and his quite unintended role in getting George Bush elected president in 2000 These vignettes serve as springboards to many telling perspectives simple arithmetic puts life long habits in a dubious new light higher dimensional geometry helps us see that we're all rather peculiar nonlinear dynamics explains the narcissism of small differences cascading into very different siblings logarithms and exponentials yield insight on why we tend to become bored and jaded as we age and there are tricks and jokes probability and coincidences and much more For fans of Paulos or newcomers to his work this witty commentary on his life and yours is fascinating reading

The Slaughter Ethan Gutmann, 2014 The inside story of China's organtransplant business and its macabre connection with internment camps and killing fields for arrested dissidents especially the adherents of Falun Gong Mass murder is alive and well That is the stark conclusion of this comprehensive investigation into the Chinese state's secret program to get rid of political dissidents while profiting from the sale of their organs in many cases to Western recipients Based on interviews with top ranking police officials and Chinese doctors who have killed prisoners on the operating table veteran China analyst Ethan Gutmann has produced a riveting insider's account culminating in a death toll that will shock the world Why would the Chinese leadership encourage such a dangerous perversion of their medical system To solve the puzzle Gutmann journeyed deep into the dissident archipelago of Falun Gong Tibetans Uighurs and House Christians uncovering an ageless drama of resistance eliciting confessions of deep betrayal and moments of ecstatic redemption In an age of compassion fatigue Gutmann relies on one simple truth those who have made it back from the gates of hell have stories to tell And no matter what baggage the reader may bring along their preconceptions of China will not survive the trip
