Management Principles A Contemporary Edition For Africa:

Management Principles P. J. Smit, G. J. Cronje, T. Brevis, M. J. Vrba, 2011-03 The challenges presented by the fast changing business environment require that organisations find new and innovative ways to respond in order to improve performance The contemporary manager has to integrate new information technology manage diversity accommodate stakeholders often conflicting claims deal with the threat that HIV AIDS poses to the workforce and comply with charters such as the Mining Charter The list of challenges has become almost endless As well as exposing the reader to the traditional management functions namely planning organising leading and controlling this edition also deals with the most recent challenges that managers have to face As a response to the increasing complexity of the business environment this book deals with ethical issues in management corporate governance strategy maps the resource based view of an organisation as well as mentorship and coaching Key lectures include Relevant examples taken from South African and African organisations Numerous illustrations with informative graphics diagrams and charts A logical structure to aid accessibility Case studies discussion questions MCQs at the end of each chapter Multimedia support materials for prescribing institutions This book is widely prescribed by institutions and will be the preferred book of many major businesses for use in their management and leadership training programmes

Management Principles P. J. Smit, 2007 Book CD To improve on an award winning book poses a major challenge to its authors The authors of this book took the challenge head on by conducting a major research study to determine what exactly the outcomes are that managers at different levels must deliver in contemporary organisations in South Africa and the rest of Africa The findings of this study which dealt with current and near future management issues as well as classical and contemporary thinking about management were used as the blueprint for the updating of this book After placing management in context the authors deal with the knowledge skills and dispositions required of managers to perform the management functions of planning organising leading and controlling in a volatile business world Examples of how the functions are applied in practice are cited throughout the book These examples refer mainly to South African organisations and situations that managers in South Africa and Africa have to deal with to create and sustain a competitive advantage for their organisations The book endeavours to break down the silo effect of seeing the management functions as separate activities This is done by continuously placing the management function at hand in a bigger context This enables learners of management to assess the implications of management decisions on different people processes systems and so on that make up the organisation

Management Principles T. Brevis,M. J. Vrba,A. De Klerk,1998-01-31 Constructed around a simple scientific management model this text focuses on the basic management principles that need to be applied in a business After an introductory overview of management the management model and the environment in which the manager functions are four chapters dealing with planning organizing leadership and control In conclusion aspects such as small business and multicultural management are explored Business Management Hannie Badenhorst-Weiss,Tersia Brevis,Mike Cant,2008-02 The world is in a constant state of flux and this influences the operations of every business and organisation Business Management A Contemporary Approach deals with these changes by covering the functions of a business or an organisation and then addressing the contemporary issues that affect them These issues include globalisation corporate entrepreneurship and citizenship credit diversity and HIV AIDS Every student of business and business manager needs to understand the importance of these issues and their influence on the operations of a business Business Management A Contemporary Approach also highlights the interdependency between the various business functions This interdependency is very important for a business or organisation to operate as a whole Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem,Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe,Ian Liebenberg,2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general Fresh

Perspectives: Entrepreneurship, 2006 Unravelling the Mysteries of Africa's Underdevelopment W. Forje, 2020-05-19

Unravelling the mysteries of Africa's underdevelopment presents an Afrocentric ideological understanding of the continent's fragmentation, a scientific and objective Mijadala discourse as well as an approach of how to move progressively and sustainably Africa forward. The breadth and depth of the book shows the unwavering impoverishment and urgent need for the continent to stand up and take the bull by the horn. It offers an inspiring means of grappling with the continent's problems to build the change we want: An African Wealth of Nations, not the continent of collapsed failed states under the governance construct of centralised authoritarian regimes. It is a thought-provoking discourse that challenges us all to be inherent participants in the reconstruction of a Brave New Africa far beyond the 21st Century.

Strategic Management, 2004 In a business world characterised by change, turbulence and corporate scandals, strategy is more crucial today than ever before. Far too often, top management develops a strategy for the company that is never communicated to or understood by other levels.

The New Partnership for Africa's Development Gloria Jaques, Gwen N. Lesetedi, 2005 This book reviews major issues involved in achieving the objectives of the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD). Using a simple framework for evaluation, the analysis highlights considerations relevant to policymakers in the areas of poverty reduction, macroeconomic policies, trade promotion, attracting capital flows and governance and institutional reforms. The analysis also identifies risks involved in achieving NEPAD's objectives. To minimize these risks, it will be important to make some goals more operational, to further broaden and deepen stakeholder participation to establish a sound basis for monitoring progress, to prepare contingency plans and to harmonize the role of regional institutions with NEPAD initiatives.

Poverty, Inequality, and Innovation in the Global South Oliver Mtshuri, 2023-03-03 This edited volume analyzes the experiences learned in practice, especially among small holder farmers, to eradicate poverty. In other words, it discusses practical solutions which small scale farmers can use to alleviate poverty and reduce inequality. This addresses the issue of inclusive and sustainability of projects leading to the notion of not leaving anyone behind. The book provides insights that can be translated into policy with potential to inform practice. It also has the potential to address the issue of rural-urban migration by providing knowledge that is usable by small scale farmers, policy makers and entrepreneurs alike. The volume is written by authors from different countries: Nigeria, Tanzania and Zimbabwe, indicating the commonality of the problems of poverty and inequality. It contains insights from all these countries assembled together into an amalgam of practices ready to use and implement, informed by evidence from the field as most of the chapters are based on empirical data.

Managing Tourism in South Africa Richard George, 2007 Tourism is a rapidly growing field of study in South Africa and tourism management is a compulsory course taught in all three years at the majority of universities of technology and universities. This book meets the need for a good South African book pitched at the right level on this subject. Specialists from various fields ranging from Accounting to Human Resource Management have written comprehensively on various aspects of management as they relate specifically to the tourism industry The book has a southern African focus and is rendered accessible to students through the use of South African examples and case studies South African Journal of Higher Education ,2008 The African Book Publishing Record ,2003 Management Principles Pieter Johannes Smit,G. J. de J. Cronje,1992-12-01 Dynamics of Diversity in an Organisational Environment S. Herselman,2004 In this groundbreaking work the author investigates various dimensions of socio cultural diversity and consequences for the establishment of workplace groups relationships between various categories of employees and for workplace behaviour including matters of a cognitive and affective nature South African journal of ethnology ,1999
