Morlock, James Branch Cabell, 2012-03 Based on the bestselling novel by James Branch Cabell Jurgen is a philosophical fantasy in the manner of Candide which strings together the hero's sexual adventures into an ironic and satirical commentary on life and sex During his travels through space and time Jurgen encounters a number of different characters from history and always manages to escape his follies relying on his natural attractive charm to rescue him when nothing else works The sexual innuendoes in the original novel were so strong that attempts were made to prevent the book's publication and to ban it from circulation but now his escapades just seem bitingly funny and entertaining A sophisticated comedy for adults with a sharply pointed stiletto of satire
