Just One More Part One:

Just One More Time Jeffery Hayton, 2012-01-05 Just one more time is an account of life in late 20th century rural Britain It is presented as a collage of poetry describing ordinary every day events and images in a thoughtful occasionally thought provoking and often humorous way It is biographic in layout written in three parts so the reader can catch his breath Part One As we grow Describes images and events of baby as he develops into first through childhood and then through his teenage years Watching copying and mimicking is what baby does best Actual events begin to play more of a role through childhood and interactions with others become more important to the teenager Part Two Before its too late Reveals the attitude of the adult always rushing to get things done The young adult is enthusiastic rebellious finding fault in many aspects of local and national government policy which in his view is found wanting Such as in his view towards the control of the individual environmental pollution statesmanship and seeming war mongering and mankind's inability to cope with helping the developing world and control the News power barons and bankers and financiers The mature adult may continue on his various crusades but mellows as he takes on the responsibility of raising a family and sees that the way things are organized still have their faults but begins to accept the world for what it is The older adult is free from family dependency and develops a realistic if somewhat cynical view on life but is opinionated amongst his peer group Part Three The older adult becomes elderly and more and more pre occupied with preparations to pass into the next world if it exists Memories become more important than events and sometimes interactions But don't take it too seriously enjoy the poetry and keep smiling

Adangbe District of Ghana in West Africa which is barely known to Ghanaians There are horrible things no one should ever experience in life in this condition I was born in that village The depressions I have the guinea worm disease I had the rejections the verbal and emotional and physical abuses bullying since my childhood and much more the rape these are things I m still dealing with because it feels fresh in my heart with the scars in my soul though I m sixty three years old and it s a miracle a divine intervention that I am counted among the living Meanwhile my mom went through this too just a little bit compared to my situation but she died in her early forties And my favorite uncle Odoi who opened my eyes to the American dream also died in his late teens and it came to a point where I begged God to make me lose my memory in order for me not to remember or feel pains and then I asked him to take my life because he gave it to me since my pains are unbearable but he declined my requests and rather he keeps protecting me and he gave me the spirit of endurance and he made me fearless And also he brought angels in human form to encourage me and to provide for me And by the most high God I Rose the rejected stone am among the luckiest survivors whose untold story will be shared with the world to give them hope and to wait patiently on the Lord that if he did it for me then he will surely do it for them also at his own time Broken Deeds MC Collection Part One Esther E.
