Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature show the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the books explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North The Development of Tertiary Education in the Eastern African Region Isabella M. Musyoka-Kamere, Daniel Namusonge Sifuna, Kisilu Kombo, 2023-11-16 This book gives a riveting account of the higher education advancements made in five East African countries each presenting unique characteristics While some of the counties enjoyed relative calm throughout their years of growth and development others have endured a turbulent past marked by civil war coups and other forms of unrest including one of the most atrocious genocide events ever recorded in the history of mankind It is a known fact that the past defines the present and describes the future The book specifically tracks the historical development of teacher education technical and vocational education and training and university education in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi The extensive research and up to date accounts provide a rich overview of tertiary education in the five countries with candid reviews of the past the current situation and perspectives on the future The book is a refreshing addition to the books of history and education and a must read for students professionals and policy makers in the field of higher education as well as scholars of history Security Governance in East Africa Kennedy Agade Mkutu, 2017-12-15 This collection of cases from East Africa contributed largely by locally based authors explores the increasing security governance phenomenon in the region that is the mix of state and non state actors including private entities volunteer auxiliaries homegrown vigilantes and gangs and the relationship between police and communities Local dynamics brought by globalization liberalization the new scramble for resource wealth inequality and international terrorism are observed in detail superimposed upon the well known development challenges ethno-political divides and patterns of government and security provision which continue to reflect their colonial past This book raises both practical and theoretical ethical dilemmas of the increasing fragmentation of security functions within Uganda Kenya South Sudan mainland Tanzania and Zanzibar It is a vital contribution to the non state plural policing debates and is of both local and

B. K. Kasozi,2017 Costs and Financing of Higher Education in Francophone Africa Mathieu Brossard,Borel Foko,2008 Despite a low enrollment rate in higher education of 3 percent on average in comparison with 8 percent in countries with comparable levels of development Francophone African countries are currently facing an immense challenge in terms of numbers The increased social demand associated with the progress made in universal primary enrollment and the increase in secondary enrollment could cause the student population to grow from 800 000 in 2004 to approximately 2 million in 2015 and to double the coverage This increase exacerbates the financial problems of higher education institutions and might result in a decline in the quality of training offered The problem of the relevance of training to labor market requirements has already become quite obvious The difficulties faced by graduates of tertiary institutions in respect to entry into the modern labor market which often provides less capacity of systems and possibly the revamping of programs to better respond to countries development needs In order to better understand the challenges and opportunities facing higher education systems in Francophone Africa this book takes stock of their situations highlights the similarities and difference in strategies between countries and indicates the potential for greater flexibility in order to improve financing as well as the internal and external efficiency of higher education systems It then uses scenarios of future possible education systems to highlight realistic and sustainable hypotheses for countries Finally it proposes policy tools that would enable policy makers and heads of higher education institutions to improve the quality and performance of systems while planning their development
