Through the narratives of practitioner researchers this practical guide shares the proven processes phases and supports that are most effective for generating living educational theories with values of human flourishing. Filled with case studies and continuing professional development activities this book supports readers to conduct a values based inquiry to improve their lives describing and explaining how they influence themselves others and the places where they live and work. There are four parts to the book guiding readers through the process of creating and sharing their own living educational theory. Part One is designed to meet the needs of the beginning researcher as they start a project to improve their practice. Part Two builds on Part One to address the deeper more complex requirements of those interested in more academic projects potentially for accreditation at the Master's level. Part Three is a description and explanation of the history and context of Living Educational Theory Research with a focus on doctoral degrees. Part Four focuses on applying this knowledge more widely to living our educational responsibilities as global citizens. This book will serve as a useful guide as opposed to a fixed template to support readers in living their values more fully. It is an essential resource for all practitioners interested in establishing a Culture of Inquiry to create their own living educational theories. These are explanations of values based professional development within their school community and can be submitted for academic accreditation. Exploring Engineering Robert Balmer, William Keat, 2009-09-05.
