Tuileries to St. Helena Louis Étienne Saint-Denis, 2014-11-21 Recollections of Napoleon's French Mameluke Napoleon Bonaparte's adventure in the Middle East brought him in close contact with the Mamelukes the dominant military caste of Egypt at the close of the 18th century As students of the period know despite the fact that the French inflicted devastating defeats on the Mamelukes their exotic oriental appearance appealed to a European sense of romance to the degree that Mameluke cavalry took their place in the Imperial Guard Napoleon notably enrolled a Mameluke Roustan Raza as his bodyguard and valet There was also a second valet known as Ali in the emperor's service who was in reality a Frenchman Louis Etienne Saint Denis was born in Versailles in 1788 where his father was an overseer in the royal stables In common with several servants who occupied a position close to the person of Napoleon Saint Denis the French Mameluke has left us an essential view of the private and intimate world of the emperor's domestic political and military life An indispensable addition to every library of the Napoleonic age Leonaux editions are newly typeset and are not facsimiles each title is available in softcover and hardback with dustjacket our hardbacks are cloth bound and feature gold foil lettering on their spines and fabric head and tail bands

Napoleon From The Tuileries to St. Helena Etienne Louis Saint-Denis (known as Ali), 2011-09-09 Following the abortive campaign in Egypt Napoleon collected a number of men from the Mamelukes to serve in his household and a further number in his Imperial Guard They held positions of great esteem and closeness to the Emperor's person and as time went on the title of Mameluke denoted the position in the household rather than the origin of the person The man known as Ali the Mameluke was actually a Frenchman born at Versailles son of a member of the Bourbon household staff He was attached to the household of the Emperor on the recommendation of the Master of Horse Armand de Caulaincourt The memoirs that he left behind him are a close and balanced portrait of Napoleon during the last years of his reign the Hundred Days and finally his imprisonment on St Helena Ali's memoirs are free from the overly gossipy tone of those left by Constant and are more accurate and penetrating than those of Roustam He studiously avoids entering into the details that he did not personally view Although he is a staunch Bonapartist overall there is not too much bias He freely shows the stresses and strains of Napoleon carrying out his plans in grandeur and then in ignominious surroundings at Longwood All of the luminaries of the last days of the Empire pass before Ali's eyes and therefore his pen and he is not always flattering about them An important memoir of an intimate member of Napoleon's household Author Etienne Louis Saint Denis known as Ali 1788 1856 Translator Frank Hunter Potter 1851 1932 Illustrations 7 Illustrations and three maps all included
