spreadsheets building and displaying presentations using email and watching movies The Coffee Break Novelist Kevin McLaughlin, 2017-07-18 Writing in the Time We Have We all have twenty four hours in a day 365 days in a year And in theory

how we spend that time is entirely up to us In practice Not so much I bet you find that most of those hours are filled in for you We have childcare and work and food prep and bill paying and housework and yard work and myriad other tasks that eat up bits and bites of that precious time until there is very little left And so most would be novelists never write their books because they don't have time They simply cannot figure out how to add anything else in Many of us have trouble finding the time to brush our teeth more than once a day fitting in a novel too It looks too big Looms too large It's a mountain of a task and there seems to be no way to confront something that will chew up that many hours in the small bits of time we have available In this book we'll address that lack of time and we're also going to look at the novel as a set of smaller bites By the time you are done you will have all the tools you need to finish your novel to fit that important work into your already busy life Are you tired of not having the time to accomplish your dream of writing a novel Have you written a book before but it took forever and you don't know how you'll ever finish the next one This book is for you
