From Thomas to Train Conductor Suzanne Jacobsen,2013-07-26 In 2010 Kirin Jacobsen walks across the auditorium stage to receive his Bachelor s Degree For his parents Suzanne and John Jacobsen this moment is more than a milestone it is a celebration of Kirin s courage to overcome enormous obstacles Follow the Jacobsen family as Kirin grows from a boy who passionately loves Thomas the Tank Engine into a wise and wonderful young man who becomes a train conductor The Jacobsen family faces many challenges with medical professionals and educators demonstrating the extent of the advocacy required to support Kirin into adulthood Individuals with developmental differences and their families are constantly faced with ignorance complacency disrespect and misunderstanding The Jacobsens story is shared to encourage parents to advocate for their loved ones and inspire changes that will make a difference in the lives of these individuals The

Making of Twenty-First-Century Richmond Thad Williamson,Julian M. Hayter,Amy L. Howard,2024-12-02 Richmond Virginia took center stage globally in the summer of 2020 as an epicenter of antiracist protests in the wake of the police murder of George Floyd In a period of just a few weeks overwhelming public support grew for removing Richmond s Confederate monuments Activists then transformed the remaining statue of Robert E Lee into a shrine to African American resolve to the Black Lives Matter movement and to Black victims of police brutality Coming to terms with Richmond s tortured racial history however is much more difficult than toppling symbols of white supremacy This book explores these dynamics via a multidisciplinary framework of historical research public policy analysis and political analysis showing the inner dynamics of politics and governance in Richmond The authors reveal why change and progress has often been so difficult to achieve and why that matters with a focus on three fundamental policy areas education economic development and housing The result is a comprehensive assessment of urban governance in a major southern city in the early twenty first century as well as an accounting of the policy and human consequences of both its limited successes and its recurring failures

Automatic Item Generation Mark J. Gierl,Thomas M. Haladyna,2013 Automatic item generation AIG represents a relatively new and unique research area where specific cognitive and psychometric theories are applied to test construction practices for the purpose of producing test items using technology The purpose of this book is to bring researchers and practitioners up to date on the growing body of research on AIG by organizing in one volume what is currently known about this research area Part I begins with an overview of the concepts and topics necessary for understanding AIG by focusing on both its history and current applications Part II presents two theoretical frameworks and practical applications of these frameworks in the production of item generation Part III summarizes the psychological and substantive characteristics of generated items Part IV concludes with a discussion of the statistical models that can be used to estimate the item characteristics of generated items features one future application of AIG describes the current technologies used for AIG and also highlights the unresolved issues that must be addressed as AIG continues to mature as a research area Comprehensive

The book provides a comprehensive analysis of both the theoretical concepts that define automatic item generation and the practical considerations required to implement these concepts Varied Applications Readers are provided with novel applications in diverse content areas e g science and reading comprehension that range across all educational levels elementary through university      Math Mammoth Grade 1 Tests and Cumulative Reviews Maria Miller,2015-01-16 Math Mammoth Grade 1 Tests and Cumulative Reviews includes consumable student copies of chapter tests the end of year test and additional cumulative review lessons to match Math Mammoth Grade 1 curriculum This is the full color version in other words the inside pages are in full color      Math Assessment Guide Level 1 Houghton Mifflin Harcourt,2010-04-14
