Fidopiastis, Panayiotis Zaphiris, Andri Ioannou, Xiaowen Fang, Robert A. Sottolare, Jessica Schwarz, 2020-10-03 This book constitutes late breaking papers from the 22nd International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2020 which was held in July 2020 The conference was planned to take place in Copenhagen Denmark but had to change to a virtual conference mode due to the COVID 19 pandemic From a total of 6326 submissions a total of 1439 papers and 238 posters have been accepted for publication in the HCII 2020 proceedings before the conference took place In addition a total of 333 papers and 144 posters are included in the volumes of the proceedings published after the conference as Late Breaking Work papers and posters These contributions address the latest research and development efforts in the field and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems Fostering Scientific Habits of Mind, 2009-01-01 The history of human development records the courageous efforts made by the generation of teacher educators to train the school leaders who are responsible to implement educational policies They have endured the burden and challenges of the times and refine the pedagogies and education systems with many innovative approaches As the world faces increasing uncertainties and shift to knowledge economy education plays a larger role in creating productive persons Designing and managing learning school organizations that can sustain a competitive advantage in this fast changing environment demands transformative leaders who would envision building intellectual capital for the future Many books on teacher education educational management and leadership exist in the past But most books do not keep up with the fast changing educational scene and only a few include future scenarios This book presents anticipated trends and demands of the new knowledge economy achieving goals with the use of various tools generative and collaborative efforts increasing leadership capability in dynamic and complex contexts enculturation of cutting edge knowledge for educational advancement and creation of teams that focus learning organizations The book brings together prominent and leading teacher educators and researchers from around the world to present their scholarship theories and practice case studies state of the art approaches and future oriented predictions This book embodies collective knowledge inquiry and represents professional conversations The chapters provides information on recent trends and development in teacher education the important role of educational management and leadership in educational transformations promising practices for desired outcomes The book is a critical and specialized resource that describes how transformative leadership can play an important role in achieving excellence in education The topics are covered in the book are educational leadership and effective teaching research in transformational leadership and professional development and social capital building in schools The Intercultural Dimension of Foreign Language Teaching, Learning and Assessment: Theory and Practice Aydan IRGATOĞLU, Gülsev PAKKAN, Özkan KIRMIZI, Muhammed KÖK, Burcu KOÇ, Derya TUZCU EKEN, Gülümser

EFEOĞLU, Hayriye AVARA, Naile CANLI, Çağla ATMACA, Ömer ÖZER, Cihan TEKİN, Peri ASLAN, Sevcan Aslıhan İLERİ, Şerife DURNA, Zamzagul SULEIMENOVA, 2024-03-22

When foreign language teaching learning and evaluation are viewed through an intercultural lens it becomes clear that language has evolved into a process that includes intercultural interaction and understanding rather than simply teaching words and grammatical rules In this context culture which is an inherent part of language is an important factor that enriches and adds meaning to language learning The intercultural dimension of foreign language teaching aims to provide students with context and communication skills that extend beyond language Understanding that language is more than just words and grammatical rules allow students to better understand the societies and cultures in which the language is used The intercultural dimension in language teaching informs students about the social norms traditions behavioural patterns and values of the societies in which the language is spoken This allows the language learner to interact more effectively with his or her contacts while also developing culturally sensitive communication skills Furthermore the intercultural dimension of language learning provides an opportunity to understand how the language is used in real life Language is more than just the act of putting words together it also includes the ability to understand how to interact within a community using those words For example teaching students cultural elements such as everyday expressions traditional rituals expressions and slang enriches their practical language use The intercultural dimension in assessment processes takes into account students language proficiency not only through grammar and vocabulary but also how they communicate in a cultural context Exams and performance assessments can be tailored to evaluate students cultural sensitivity expressiveness and language skills in a cultural setting The current curriculum and the design of new curricula are critical in language learning Curriculum design is a planning and organizing process that guides educational processes Curriculum design and intercultural competence play an important role in enriching educational programs and providing students with a global perspective When intercultural competence is integrated into this design students have the opportunity to learn about elements of different cultures such as art literature history and language This broadens students perspectives and helps them understand cultural diversity Integrating intercultural competence into curriculum design aims to help students develop intercultural communication skills Aside from grammar and vocabulary communication skills include intercultural sensitivity empathy and effective communication techniques Intercultural communication skills are developed by giving students opportunities to interact with people from various cultures Improving intercultural communication skills has become a key learning objective in today s globalized world In the classroom students can learn intercultural communication skills through a variety of effective practices Intercultural discussions in the classroom cultural exchange programs culturally themed project studies participation in cultural events intercultural communication simulations and intercultural sensitivity training are all effective studies that promote learning through experience while also strengthening cultural interaction in language teaching These classroom practices are designed to provide students with the skills and awareness required for successful intercultural communication This allows students to acquire not only language knowledge but also the social skills required for successful intercultural interaction This book examines teaching learning and the intercultural dimension in language education both theoretically and practically The book which includes original research offers new perspectives for teachers by addressing developmental methods We would like to thank the authors and experts who contributed to the present book We d like to thank the entire publishing house team for their contributions to publish this book

The Concept of Racism, Stereotypes and Prejudices Reflected in En Vogue's "Free Your Mind" Sarah Wunderlich, 2015-10-23 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1.0 University of Koblenz Landau Institut für Anglistik course Seminar Youth Culture and Fashion Didactic Approaches language English abstract With the notion of being a matter of the past the topics of racism stereotypes and prejudices are oftentimes put aside in today s youth mindset But although seemingly far away from Germany these subjects are still present and have been ever since the racial segregation in the US has been dissolved unfortunately the same applies in Germany and the issues are increasingly present in German news e.g. PEGIDA movements or the burning of refugee homes Especially now teachers are required to focus on educating critical citizens and making students aware of the current developments and critically reflect the dangers and possible ways of diminishing such developments This paper shows a possible approach to tackle the challenge described above in devising a lesson that handles with the subject matter by using En Vogue s Free Your Mind Although released in 1992 the song still addresses contemporary problems of racial discrimination and calls on overcoming fossilized stereotypes in order to get beyond those conflicts This paper provides an approach on designing a lesson within a unit on those issues using authentic material and contemporary techniques It suits the requirements of the Lehrplan in Rhineland Palatinate and the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages
