Language And Power An Introduction To Institutional Discourse Andrea Mayr:

Language and Power Andrea Mayr, 2008-10-21 An overview of the field of institutional discourse introducing the key theorists Language and Power Paul Simpson, Andrea Mayr, 2009-10-16 Routledge English Language Introductions cover core areas of language study and are one stop resources for students Assuming no prior knowledge books in the series offer an accessible overview of the subject with activities study questions sample analyses commentaries and key readings all in the same volume The innovative and flexible two dimensional structure is built around four sections introduction development exploration and extension which offer self contained stages for study Each topic can also be read across these sections enabling the reader to build gradually on the knowledge gained Language and Power offers a comprehensive survey of the ways in which language intersects and connects with the social cultural and political aspects of power provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of the field and covers all the major approaches theoretical concepts and methods of analysis in this important and developing area of academic study covers all the traditional topics such as race gender and institutional power but also incorporates newer material from forensic discourse analysis the discourse of new capitalism and the study of humour as power includes readings from works by seminal figures in the field such as Roger Fowler Deborah Cameron and Teun van Dijk uses real texts and examples throughout including advertisements from cosmetics companies newspaper articles and headlines websites and internet media and spoken dialogues such as a transcription from the Obama and McCain presidential debate is accompanied by a supporting website that aims to challenge students at a more advanced level and features a complete four unit chapter which includes activities a reading and suggestions for further work Language and Power will be essential reading for students studying English language and linguistics Paul Simpson is Professor of English Language in the School of English at Queen s University Belfast UK where he teaches and researches in stylistics critical linguistics and related fields of study Andrea Mayr is Lecturer in Modern English Language and Linguistics at Queen s University Belfast UK where she teaches and researches in media discourse and in multimodal critical discourse analysis Theory and Methodology of Semiotics Alexandros Ph. Lagopoulos, Karin Boklund-Lagopoulou, 2020-11-23 The book is an in depth presentation of the European branch of semiotic theory originating in the work of Ferdinand de Saussure It has four parts a historical introduction the analysis of langue narrative theory and communication theory Part I briefly presents all the semiotic schools and their main points of reference Although this material is accessible in many other Anglophone publications the presentation is marked by specific choices aiming to display similarities and differences The analysis of langue in Part II is also available in Anglophone bibliography but the book presents Saussurean theory according to a new theoretical rationale and enriched with later developments In addition it is orientated so as to offer the foundation for the part that follows Part III is a presentation of Greimasian narrative theory well documented in Francophone bibliography but poorly represented in Anglophone publications The presentation extends the theory in both a qualitative and a new quantitative direction and includes a great number of examples and two extended textual analyses to help the reader understand and apply it Part IV communication theory combines an extension of Greimasian sociosemiotics with other schools of thought This original theoretical section discusses fourteen consecutive communication models the synthesis of which results in a holistic social semiotic theory of communication      Semiotics and its Masters. Volume 1 Kristian Bankov,Paul Cogley,2017-05-22 This volume presents a broad range of topics and current frontline research by leading semioticians The contributions are representative of the most cutting edge work in semiotics but project as well the developments in the near future of the field      Redefining Trial by Media Simon Statham,2016-06-14 Redefining Trial by Media Towards a critical forensic linguistic interface applies a range of linguistic models to recast trial by media not as a sensationalist and infrequent phenomenon but as a systematic and routine process Using critical discourse analysis and cognitive linguistic models this book builds a Spectrum of Trial by Media which views juries in criminal trials as moulded by ideological media made constructions of crime The role of these media constructions is enhanced by the isolation levied on jurors by the linguistic composition of trial language and reinforced by the language strategies of legal professionals in court Critically deconstructing media portrayals of crime and forensically examining the language of criminal proceedings this book offers a redefinition of trial by media which casts the role of the press as much more prevalent in the courtroom trial than is presently appreciated      Native-speakerism in English Language Teaching Songqing Li,Junshuan Liu,2019-11-04 This book is the first systematic large scale study of the current situation of native speakerism in the realm of China s English Language Teaching ELT By extending the semantic scope of native speakerism initially defined by Adrian Holliday the book offers a critical examination of how this language ideology is enacted reproduced reinforced and legitimized in everyday ELT practice within the theoretical framework of Critical Discourse Analysis CDA Both quantitative and qualitative analyses were conducted to explore and interpret the attitudes and perceptions of students teachers and administrators as the major stakeholders engaged in ELT practice with a primary focus on English language varieties cultural orientations and teaching methodologies      Muslim Perspectives on Islamophobia Zouhir Gabsi,2024-08-06 The Islamic positioning of Islamophobia is presented in this book Through Islamic or Muslim perspectives the book engages with various Islamic texts and discourses spoken and written emanating from preachers and scholars of Islam to discuss the points of convergence and divergence with the Western interpretation of the phenomenon The book aims to look at Islamophobia from a hitherto unexplored angle by first analyzing the points of convergence and divergence between the internal Muslim and external Western perspectives and then by providing new approaches to curbing Islamophobia through a holistic spiritual dimension of Islam and cultural memory The book contends that the bridges of understanding between the East and the West can only be built if some of Islam s theological concepts such as the place of reason in Islam are reinterpreted by considering the Islamic perspectives While the book acknowledges previous work on Islamophobia it contributes to a deeper understanding of Islamophobia in its internal and external manifestations by considering the theoretical frameworks of racism and xenophobia Readers interested in Islamic studies and anti racism narratives would find this book s eclectic approach and balanced perspective of the phenomenon informative and enlightening Language, Culture and Identity Philip Riley,2007-08-23 Examines how language shapes and is shaped by our identity The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 How to Do Critical Discourse Analysis David Machin,Andrea Mayr,2023-03-11 An inventive insight into how language is used while examining different discourses that signify ideas values and identities with communication in our post modern society The book has a unique and compelling point of view of contemporary examples of CDA but never oversimplifies it MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2008 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Power Talk Joanna Thornborrow,2014-08-27 The concept of social power who holds it and how they use it is a widely debated subject particularly in the field of discourse analysis and the wider arena of sociolinguistics In her new book Joanna Thornborrow challenges the received notion that power is necessarily held by some speakers and not by others Through the detailed analysis of communication and interaction within a range of institutional settings she examines power as an emerging negotiated phenomenon between participants with different status and goals Written in a clear style which combines attention to technical detail with accessibility Power Talk includes a comprehensive introduction to the theme of power including the analytic approaches to power in language a wide ranging discussion of theory and practice and in depth contemporary case studies Power Talk is the first book to focus on the topic of power in situated interaction across a range of contexts As such it makes a timely and important contribution to the debate surrounding social power and language use and will be of value to both students and researchers alike Language and Power in the Modern World Mary Talbot,2019-08-07 This book explores key areas of modern society in which language is used to form power and social relations These are presented in five sections Language and the MediaLanguage and OrganisationsLanguage and GenderLanguage and YouthMultilingualism Identity and EthnicityWith a unique combination of selected readings and student centred tasks in a single volume the book covers contemporary issues in language and power ranging from the global to the interpersonal Each area and each reading chosen to explore it is substantially contextualised and discussed through a detailed introduction and then followed up with related activities Each section comprises a substantial specific introduction which draws students attention to key themes and issues relevant to its topic a set of four or five selected readings which encourages students to locate critically these issues in context a task or set of tasks obliging students to undertake hands on linguistic analysis of data and engage in more sophisticated discussion of pertinent issues In depth exploration of a variety of approaches to the study of language and power Unique combination of advanced readings student centred tasks and editorial guidance Hands on activities at the end of each chapter Language and Power Norman Fairclough,2014 Language and

Power is widely recognised both as a classic and an essential introductory textbook to the field of Critical Discourse Analysis. In this twenty fifth anniversary edition Norman Fairclough brings the discussion up to date and shows both the importance of the book in the development of critical discourse analysis over the past three decades and how language and power relations have changed due to major socio economic changes. Discourse and Power Teun A van Dijk, 2017-09-16 Teun van Dijk is one of the founders of Critical Discourse Studies and this collection brings together some of his most important writing framed by new introductory material. He examines the role of discourse in the reproduction of power and domination in society and the ways in which media and political elites control access to public discourse. Language, Society and Power Linda Thomas, Shân Wareing, 2004-07-31 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company. Talk, Work and Institutional Order Srikant Sarangi, Celia Roberts, 1999 Review text Even this relatively long review cannot capture the scope depth and excellent quality of Sarangi and Roberts collection. This volume should be required reading for anyone carrying out research within an ethnomethodological discourse analytical pragmatic or related framework. A detailed and useful subject index complements this volume. Frank Nuessel in Language Problems and Language Planning 2001. Language, Society and Power Ishtla Singh, Jean Stilwell Peccei, 2004. Powerful Talk Joanna Thornborrow, Joanna Thornborrow Staff, 2002-01-01. Status and Power in Verbal Interaction Julie Diamond, 1996-03-15. Status and Power in Verbal Interaction is a sociolinguistic study of conversation in a social context. Using an ethnographic methodology and a network analysis of the social roles and relationships in a particular language community the book explores how speakers negotiate status relationship and ultimately contest power through discourse. Of chief concern to the study is how speakers manage to negotiate relationship roles which here consists of institutional status as well as the more variable social standing using conversation. Discourse is seen to be not only what people say but how they say it how speakers take the floor bring new topic to the floor interrupt each other and become a resource person in a conversation. The study revolves around the idea that power while intricately tied to social standing and institutional status is more than the sum of one's institutional standing age education race and gender. Though these factors convey rank conversants nonetheless use discourse to jockey for position and contest their relational role vis a vis their discourse partners. While institutional standing may be more or less fixed power of relational roles fluctuates greatly because as the study shows power is accorded through a process of ratifying the positive self image of a speaker. Thus one's standing in a group is a community negotiation. By investigating power in community at a micro level of analysis this study adds a new dimension to existing understandings of power.
