Journeys Focus Wall Kindergarten:

Journey to Literacy Krista Flemington, Linda Hart-Hewins, Una Villiers, 2011 The play based learning and individualized strategies in this practical book build on the wide range of literacy skills present in the kindergarten classroom This valuable resource explores simple ways to use traditional learning centres to provide children with real and authentic reasons to listen speak read write and view Teachers will find a wealth of resources for creating meaningful learning experiences including answers to often asked questions milestones to inform teaching instruction activities and games for both individuals and groups literacy extensions that involve children with quality literature authentic artifacts and recordings This highly readable book will support teachers as they move beyond worksheets and nurture students on their journey to lifelong literacy

Environment and Children Christopher Day, Anita Midbjer, 2007 How does the built environment affect children their health their behaviour education and development To support them what do we need to consider and what do we need to do Can our surroundings foster environmental and social awareness and responsibility Based on Christopher Day s experiences designing schools and early childhood centres in the United States and Britain this groundbreaking book sets out to answer these questions and to offer solutions Children all too often find themselves living in alien surroundings designed with the needs of adults in mind cut off not just from the natural environment but also childhood itself Society s reaction to cocoon children from the outside world or to resort to drugs to control behaviour fails to address the fundamental causes of problems which lie in the environment not the children themselves One of the world s leading thinkers on the impact of buildings on people Christopher Day s insights offer new light on one of the most important issues for today s society

European Cinema after the Wall Leen Engelen, Kris Van Heuckelom, 2013-11-21 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 transnational European cinema has risen not only in terms of production but also in terms of a growing focus on multiethnic themes within the European context This shift from national to trans European filmmaking has been profoundly influenced by such historical developments as the collapse of the Iron Curtain and the subsequent ongoing enlargement of the European Union In European Cinema after the Wall Screening East West Mobility Leen Engelen and Kris Van Heuckelom have brought together essays that critically examine representations of post 1989 migration from the former Eastern Bloc to Western Europe uncovering an array of common tropes and narrative devices that characterize the influences and portrayals of immigration Featuring essays by contributors from backgrounds as divergent as film studies Slavic and Russian studies comparative literature sociology contemporary history and communication and media studies this volume will appeal to scholars of film European history and those interested in the impact of migration diaspora and the global flow of cinematic culture
