

ATP RANKINGS: DJOKOVIC RETURNS TO NO.1

• A successful show at French Open wins him laurels

Paris, June 12

Novak Djokovic has returned to No. 1 position in the ATP Rankings after triumphing at Roland Garros and has begun a record-extending 35th week at the ranking summit where he clinched a record 23rd major. Djokovic reclaimed the No. 1 spot by defeating Carlos Alcaraz in the Roland Garros semifinals, taking the 42nd point total over the 22-week-old Rafael Nadal, who has played second with 7,275 points. If Alcaraz had managed to defeat Djokovic and reach his second major final, he would have been able to take the ATP Ranking following the tournament. It will be Djokovic's third stint as World No. 1 since 2011, when he won the title in 2023 he has climbed to No. 1 by winning a major. He has won each of the Australian Open and Roland Garros and returned to the top of the men's tennis mountain with time. In February, Djokovic broke Stefanos Tsitsipas's record for most weeks at World No. 1 by a month as ATP Tour events played this week. Only one other man, Roger Federer (320 weeks), has spent more than 300 weeks at World No. 1.

The Serbian is the first man to win all four major events at least three times. He is also the oldest Roland Garros champion at the age of 36 years and 30 days. Several other ATP Tour events have also finished following the second major of the season. Khachanov has returned to the Top 10, ending Federer

Auger-Aliassime, for the first time since 2022 after he reached the quarterfinals in Paris. The 27-year-old has enjoyed an impressive season, also advancing to the semifinals in the Australian Open and the Miami Open. Alexander Zverev of Germany climbed four spots to third after his second final in French Open. The 26-year-old's run in the French capital was his best result of the season. Tennis Martin Klitschewsky is a regular money in the men's rankings as he went up 17 places to 22nd. The Argentine arrived at Roland Garros with a career-high second only one main draw win at a major (Australian Open 2022). Tennis came to his aid in a quarterfinal after defeating Jack Kruger, who he defeated, Boris Becker and Yoshihito Nishitani.

Playing Test for Aus important than IPL: Starc

London, June 12

One of the finest players of the current generation, Mitchell Starc keeps away from the franchise cricket, including the IPL, despite the handsome money offer he wants to be at his 'team' playing for Australia. For Starc, playing Test cricket for Australia is a path he hopes many youngsters will follow in future. Several cricketers of Starc have appeared in various T20 leagues across the globe such as Indian Premier League (IPL), Big Bash, but the left-arm pacer has managed to stay away from the franchise cricket. Starc has played only one T20 match in 10 years ago, but Australia will always be at the top. I don't regret any of it, money will come and go but I'm very grateful for the opportunity to play for Australia. I've been there for 100 years who have played in Australia, that in itself makes it very special to be a part of it. The franchise cricket in one will keep these is a generation of men and girls who want to represent their country in Test cricket. But the main money is in franchise cricket, it's the money. The 33-year-old, who last played franchise cricket back in 2013 for the Royal Challengers Bangalore in the IPL, is clear in his mind that his priority for the foreseeable future. It's certainly time to play in the T20s, but I'm glad for a long time has been to be at my best for Australia, so maybe the 'franchise' Starc wanted.
