The book presents the interaction of science and law as it applies specifically the Canadian courts but the justice process as a whole Dr Ferguson s experience from a scientist and medical professional s perspective in dealing with lawyers judges and the process of testifying in numerous court offers a unique glimpse into how the two worlds of science and law don t always mesh In some cases the evidence is compelling and definitive In others far from it Ultimately the book presents the important role of the forensic expert and expert witness as a vital and deciding factor as the courtroom proceedings play out The cases presented in the book cases Dr Ferguson was personally involved with are interesting the conclusions and results arrived at by Dr Ferguson are well thought out and backed by his scientific expertise The results and conclusions arrived at by the courts is often expected sometimes surprising in specific cases even controversial Throughout all Dr Ferguson casts an independent and sometimes critical eye on the process presenting a compelling argument and heartfelt recommendation for science objectivity and justice to be served based on truth truth insofar as the facts of the cases presented through evidence and the testimony provided within the judicial process A fascinating read for university students experts and witnesses lawyers and judges and anyone involved in the forensic process in the trying of criminal and civil cases Not Paved for Us

Camika Royal, 2022-07-19 Winner of the 2024 AERA Outstanding Book Award Not Paved for Us chronicles a fifty year period in Philadelphia education and offers a critical look at how school reform efforts do and do not transform outcomes for Black students and educators This illuminating book offers an extensive expert analysis of a school system that bears the legacy hallmarks and consequences that lie at the intersection of race and education Urban education scholar Camika Royal deftly analyzes decades of efforts aimed at improving school performance within the School District of Philadelphia SDP in a brisk survey spanning every SDP superintendency from the 1960s through 2017 Royal interrogates the history of education and educational reforms recounting city state and federal interventions She covers SDP s connections with the Common School Movement and the advent of the Philadelphia Freedom Schools and she addresses federal policy shifts from school desegregation to the No Child Left Behind and Every Student Succeeds Acts Her survey provides sociopolitical context and rich groundwork for a nuanced examination of why many large urban districts struggle to implement reforms with fidelity and in ways that advance Black students academically and holistically In a bracing critique Royal bears witness to the ways in which positive public school reform has been obstructed through racism and racial capitalism but also via liberal ideals neoliberal practices and austerity tactics Royal shows how despite the well intended actions of larger entities the weight of school reform here as in other large urban districts has been borne by educators striving to meet the extensive needs of their students families and communities with only the slightest material financial and human resources She draws on the experiences of Black educators and community members and documents their contributions Not Paved for Us highlights the experiences of Black educators as they navigate the racial and cultural politics of urban school reform Ultimately Royal names dissects and challenges the presence of racism in school reform policies and practices while calling for an antiracist future Canadian Almanac and Directory, 1847 New Voyages to Carolina Larry E. Tise, Jeffrey J. Crow, 2017-09-14

 New Voyages to Carolina offers a bold new approach for understanding and telling North Carolina's history. Recognizing the need for such a fresh approach and reflecting a generation of recent scholarship, eighteen distinguished authors have sculpted a broad, inclusive narrative of the state's evolution over more than four centuries. The volume provides new lenses and provocative possibilities for reimagining the state's past. Transcending traditional markers of wars and elections, the contributors map out a new chronology encompassing geological realities, the unappreciated presence of Indians, blacks, and women, religious and cultural influences, and abiding preferences for industrial development within the limits of progressive politics. While challenging traditional story lines, the authors frame a candid tale of the state's development. Contributors: Dorothea V. Ames, East Carolina University; Karl E. Campbell, Appalachian State University; James C. Cobb, University of Georgia; Peter A. Coclanis, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Stephen Feeley, McDaniel College; Jerry Gershenhorn, North Carolina Central University; Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore, Yale University; Patrick Huber, Missouri University of Science and Technology; Charles F. Irons, Elon University; David Moore Warren, Wilson College; Michael Leroy Oberg, State University of New York College at Geneseo; Stanley R. Riggs, East Carolina University; Richard D. Starnes, Western Carolina University; Carole Watterson Troxler, Elon University; Bradford J. Wood, Eastern Kentucky University; Karin Zipf, East Carolina University.

Muslim Women in Contemporary North America Meena Sharify-Funk, 2022-12-06 Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is a provocative study of how strongly held and divergent opinions, values, and beliefs, as well as misconceptions, overgeneralizations, and political agendas pertaining to Muslim women in the region, enter the public frame of reference. Interrogating contested topics in a series of case studies from both Canada and the United States, this book probes below the surface in pursuit of deeper understanding and more productive dialogue. Chapters analyze controversies over clash literature, dissident reformists, female religious leadership, veils, and the nature of emancipation in a compelling examination of the ways in which Muslim American and Canadian identities and values are being defined, differentiated, and projected. By pinpointing both sources of dissonance and unexpected patterns of resonance among complex, composite, and at times overlapping identity constellations, this book uncovers the impact of controversies on broader cultural negotiations in the United States and Canada. Transforming controversy and cliché into genuine conversation, Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is an invaluable resource for scholars and students in the fields of Islamic and Muslim Studies, Gender Studies, International Relations, Political Science, and Sociology.
