Limpopo Mike Cadman,2007      Educator Workload in South Africa Linda Chisholm,2005 Teachers spend slightly less time on their activities overall but much less time on teaching than policy requires There is a serious erosion of instructional time in the majority of schools but it is worst in rural and semi rural African schools      Geography Teacher Education and Professionalization Eyüp Artvinli,Inga Gryl,Jongwon Lee,Jerry T. Mitchell,2022-11-02 This book focuses on how current and prospective teachers worldwide are prepared for the significant task of teaching geography given the important role of teachers It eschews a traditional career centric framework pre service in service teaching in favor of a topical approach toward issues that all teachers face The book updates thinking on geography education subfields such as GI education and fieldwork and traces important contemporary discourses such as digitalization and sustainability The book further explains the broad variety of institutionalization of geography teacher education in various political systems In short this book collects strategies for geography teacher educators worldwide to provide insight into the challenges conditions and solutions present at the classroom and institutional level As such this book is a must have for teacher educators and geography teachers worldwide      Exploring childhood in a comparative context Mabel Ann Brown,Jon White,2013-09-05 Exploring Childhood in a Comparative Context meets an increasing need for students focusing on early childhood to be familiar with alternative practices in other countries Providing a ready made source of information about a wide range of countries including Finland the Netherlands the United States New Zealand Japan South Africa and many more the book clearly describes the way each country understands and conceptualises childhood Each chapter includes contextual information about the country an introduction to the theory that has shaped practice and describes the curriculum for pre school and primary education Including vignettes from practitioners working in each country to illustrate practice the chapters explore key themes such as Child development Parental involvement Teaching and learning Professionalism Assessment Pupil experience Accessibly written and including opportunities for reflection this timely new book will give students a valuable insight into alternative education systems that is essential if they are to become practitioners with a current and global approach      Diverse educational contexts and research on metacognition and motivation to enhance self-directed learning Bernadette Geduld,Byron J. Bunt,Divan Jagals,2025-02-17 This scholarly book explores the latest education research on metacognition and self directed learning providing practical insights for educators and students As the thirteenth volume in the NWU Self Directed Learning Series it focuses on developing metacognitive skills to enhance self regulation motivation and independent thinking key competencies for success in the 21st century Metacognition plays a vital role in learning helping students plan evaluate and self assess their progress Research shows that students with strong metacognitive strategies achieve better learning outcomes apply knowledge effectively and persist through academic challenges This book offers evidence based teaching strategies to support the development of self regulated learning and motivation in diverse educational settings It examines teaching behaviour and instructional methods that foster metacognitive growth in both basic and higher education With a particular focus on the South African education landscape it extends research in cognitive developmental and applied psychology Researchers and educators will find practical approaches for integrating metacognition into various disciplines making this book a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate education programmes South Africa Yearbook ,2006 Imagining Multilingual Schools Ofelia García,Tove Skutnabb-Kangas,Maria E. Torres-Guzmán,2006 This book brings together visions and realities of multilingual schools throughout the world in order to examine the pedagogical socioeducational and sociopolitical issues that impact on their development and success The chapters describe and analyze pedagogical instructional and policy efforts to develop multilingualism through school with different targeted populations immigrant students indigenous peoples traditional minorities majorities and multiethnic multilingual groups Each contribution many written by well known scholars in the field of bilingual and multilingual education affirms the desirability of multilingualism as a societal resource and as a right of individuals while acknowledging the social economic and political differences that make the acquisition of multilingualism easy for some and difficult for others And yet the book focuses on the school as a place of promise and resistance having the potential to preserve recover and expand the world s linguistic diversity The introduction written by the co editors identifies the conceptual threads that are developed throughout the chapters But the chapters themselves remind us of the importance of local conditions despite the global pressures of the 21st century in imagining and creating multilingual educational spaces South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index
