Towards a New Primary Curriculum for South Africa Carol A. Macdonald,1993 Since 1979 Act 90 The Education and Training Act South Africa s law has stated that an official language i e English or Afrikaans could be used as the medium of instruction after Std 2 fourth grade in black education Almost without exception English was chosen by the primary schools This means that most children are introduced to the new subjects of history science and geography through the medium of English These subjects are encapsulated in textbooks that children find unusable and teachers have difficulty in understanding In 1990 the legislation was amended so that medium of instruction now becomes a matter of negotiation between the Minister of Education and the parents This negotiation is currently under way in many Department of Education and Training schools This change of legislation came as a direct result of research carried out over a period of five years on the Threshold Project 1985 1990 The overt cause of difficulties within the education system would have seemed to be a language policy that traumatises both teachers and pupils Inadequate time and materials are spent preparing children for a change in the medium of learning and the curriculum is not developed carefully enough to lead children to an understanding to a large number of abstract concepts by the fifth year of schooling The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1902 The African Book Publishing Record ,1997 British Books in Print ,1986 Commonwealth Universities Yearbook ,1981 A directory to the universities of the Commonwealth and the handbook of their association Whitaker's Five-year Cumulative Book List ,1953 Taking Power in the Economy Susan Brown,Alta Fölscher,2004 Covers trends from the mid1990s to 2002 The Times Index ,2010 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Proceedings of the ...
