source of energy and an increased demand for energy resources in general. Particularly the natural gas shipping industry underlies peculiar states of affairs. It is a highly technologized investment intense segment which is affected by currents of political, economic and environmental origin. Hence natural gas shipowners as well as other participants upstream and downstream of this sector find themselves in difficulty of strategic decision making. The purpose for this study has therefore been to investigate in how a natural gas shipping company and other market participants can take a farsighted strategic decision in the complex and uncertain business environment of today and thereby planning for the future. By using the scenario approach of modelling a complex world in single happenings, it will be thought deeply and creatively about the future whereof the most salient factors affecting this industry are illuminated. Upon these scenarios, various economic theories and models including an equation of natural gas ships demand are applied whose concepts could be exercised by market participants in order to adapt to ever changing circumstances with vigilance and to reduce the risk of being unprepared for the future. The study found that the global natural gas industry is impacted by the dynamics deriving from conditions enforced by, for instance, the ongoing financial and economic crisis, legislative forces, substitutionary effects of energy products and political discord in natural gas providing as well as receiving countries. The outer firm global contexts leave a footprint on the strategic decision making of a firm. In addition, it was proofed that scenario conduction is a viable tool for strategic planning of a firm active in the natural gas shipping field in order to address the business.

Background for the discussion delivers a qualitative content analysis based on Mayring 2015 and Kuckartz 2016. Five qualitative interviews with master students of political science of the University of Bamberg were conducted with the help of an open guideline.
