Mullis,1990 Data from 20 years 1970 90 of the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP are summarized The NAEP represents the nation s only ongoing assessment of the academic achievement of American students Its assessments of educational achievement of students in grades 4 8 and 12 are presented as The Nation s Report Card Chapter 1 of this report contains information about the students competency in subject matter across the curriculum and their ability to use their minds well Chapters 2 and 3 include information about the trends across time related to the performance of elementary school middle school and secondary school students in higher order reasoning problem solving and communication skills as well as information about the academic achievement of minority students Chapter 4 summarizes information about background variables related to education In general the data indicate that the educational performance of U S students is low and not improving It is estimated that more than half of the nation s elementary through high school students are unable to demonstrate competency in challenging subject matter in English mathematics science history and geography Fewer than half of all U S students appear to be able to use their minds well Although considerable progress has been made in closing the performance gaps among different racial ethnic and gender groups the gaps still remain too large to meet the nation s objective of close parallels between the performance of minority students and the student population as a whole Much that research has identified as effective in improving education is still not being implemented in the nation s schools Nineteen tables and five figures summarize NAEP data SLD Evaluaciones nacionales del rendimiento académico Volumen 1 Vincent Greaney,Thomas Kellaghan,2016-02-02 La evaluaci n efectiva del desempe o de los sistemas educativos es un componente

clave en la formulación de políticas para optimizar el desarrollo del capital humano en todo el mundo Los cinco libros de la serie Evaluaciones nacionales del rendimiento académico presentan conceptos clave de las evaluaciones nacionales de los niveles de rendimiento estudiantil desde las cuestiones normativas que deben abordarse cuando se diseña y se lleva a cabo las evaluaciones hasta el desarrollo de las pruebas el muestreo la depuración de datos las estadísticas la redacción de informes y el uso de los resultados para mejorar la calidad de la educación Este primer volumen describe los fines y las características de las evaluaciones nacionales así como las cuestiones relacionadas con su diseño su puesta en práctica su análisis y su comunicación Describe también las principales evaluaciones internacionales regionales y nacionales llevadas a cabo en una serie de países El libro va dirigido principalmente a gobiernos nacionales regionales y estatales instituciones de investigación y universidades

Assessment in Transition Robert Glaser, Robert Linn, George Bohrnstedt, 1997 This is the final report of the National Academy of Education's Panel on the Evaluation of the National Assessment of Education NAEP Progress Trial State Assessment In this report the Panel considers philosophical technical and policy issues concerning the NAEP in the immediate future and in the long term The high technical quality of the NAEP assessment and its independence from unwarranted influences and political pressures have enabled the NAEP to monitor trends in educational achievement reliably since its inception in 1969 In recent years the NAEP has expanded the number of students it assesses and has undergone substantial changes in content design and administration Taken together these changes have produced complexities that threaten the entire program This report suggests ways in which the NAEP should broaden its conceptualization assessment and reporting It asserts that educational achievement must be redefined in terms of what students need to know and be able to do for the 21st century and that education conditions must be created to support this vision of achievement The fundamental purposes of the NAEP should be to inform the public and policy makers about student achievement trends in the nation and the states and to stimulate democratic debate about how to improve education It is important that NAEP standards be set in defensible ways Details are provided for a program of innovation and research that will require substantial planning before the reauthorization of the NAEP in 1998 These chapters are included 1 The Central Purpose of the National Assessment of Educational Progress 2 What Should NAEP Measure 3 Measuring Achievement 4 Informing the Nation 5 Connecting to the Larger Network of Education Information and 6 Planning for the Long Term Contains 7 figures and 43 references SLD
