Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria Weimer,2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity

Pandora's Gamble Alison Young,2023-04-25 Named to Kirkus Reviews Best Books of 2023 A remarkable book The New York Times This fearless deeply reported book about laboratory accidents asks the haunting question some elite scientists don t want the public to entertain Did the COVID 19 pandemic start with a lab leak in Wuhan China This is an obvious question Yet there s been an extraordinary effort by government officials in China as well as leading scientific experts in the United States and around the world to shut down any investigation or discussion of the lab leak theory In private however some of the world s elite scientists have seen a lab accident as a very real and horrifying possibility They know what the public doesn t Lab accidents happen with shocking frequency Even at the world s best run labs That s among the revelations from Alison Young the award winning investigative reporter who has spent nearly 15 years uncovering shocking safety breaches at prestigious U S laboratories for USA Today and other respected news outlets In Pandora's Gamble Young goes deep into the troubling history and enormous risks of leaks and accidents at scientific labs She takes readers on a riveting journey around the world to some of the worst lab mishaps in history including the largely unknown stories of the lab workers at the U S Army's Camp Detrick who suffered devastating infections at alarming rates during World War II And her groundbreaking reporting exposes for the first time disturbing new details about recent accidents at prestigious laboratories and the alarming gaps in government oversight that put all of us at risk Sourced through meticulous reporting and exclusive interviews with key players including Dr Anthony Fauci former CDC Director Tom Frieden and others Young's examination reveals that the only thing rare about lab accidents is the public rarely finds out about them Because when accidents happen powerful people and institutions often work hard to keep the information secret

The Microbial Regulation of Global Biogeochemical Cycles

Johannes Rousk, Per Bengtson, 2014-10-17 Global biogeochemical cycles of carbon and nutrients are increasingly affected by human activities So far modeling has been central for our understanding of how this will affect ecosystem functioning and the biogeochemical cycling of carbon and nutrients These models have been forced to adopt a reductive approach built on the flow of carbon and nutrients between pools that are difficult or even impossible to verify with empirical evidence Furthermore while some of these models include the response in physiology ecology and biogeography of primary producers to environmental change the microbial part of the ecosystem is generally poorly represented or lacking altogether The principal pool of carbon and nutrients in soil is the organic matter The turnover of this reservoir is governed by microorganisms that act as catalytic converters of environmental conditions into biogeochemical cycling of carbon and nutrients The dependency of this conversion activity on individual environmental conditions such as pH moisture and temperature has been frequently studied On the contrary only rarely have the microorganisms involved in carrying out the processes been identified and one of the biggest challenges for advancing our understanding of biogeochemical processes is to identify the microorganisms carrying out a specific set of metabolic processes and how they partition their carbon and nutrient use We also need to identify the factors governing these activities and if they result in feedback mechanisms that alter the growth activity and interaction between primary producers and microorganisms By determining how different groups of microorganisms respond to individual environmental conditions by allocating carbon and nutrients to production of biomass CO<sub>2</sub> and other products a mechanistic as well as quantitative understanding of formation and decomposition of organic matter and the production and consumption of greenhouse gases can be achieved In this Research Topic supported by the Swedish research councils programme Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services in a Changing Landscape BECC we intend to promote this alternative framework to address how cycling of carbon and nutrients will be altered in a changing environment from the first principle mechanisms that drive them namely the ecology physiology and biogeography of microorganisms and on up to emerging global biogeochemical patterns This novel and unconventional approach has the potential to generate fresh insights that can open up new horizons and stimulate rapid conceptual development in our basic understanding of the regulating factors for global biogeochemical cycles The vision for the research topic is to facilitate such progress by bringing together leading scientists as proponents of several disciplines By bridging Microbial Ecology and Biogeochemistry connecting microbial activities at the micro scale to carbon fluxes at the ecosystem scale and linking above and belowground ecosystem functioning we can leap forward from the current understanding of the global biogeochemical cycles AIIMS Annual Report All-India Institute of Medical Sciences,2015 The Chittagong University Journal of Social Science ,2010 Rural America in a Globalizing World Conner Bailey,Leif Jensen,Elizabeth Ransom,2014 This fourth Rural Sociological Society decennial volume provides advanced policy scholarship on rural North America during the 2010 s closely reflecting upon the increasingly global nature of social cultural and economic forces and the impact of neoliberal ideology upon policy politics and power in rural areas The chapters in this volume represent the expertise of an influential group of scholars in rural sociology and related social sciences Its five sections address the changing structure of North American agriculture natural resources and the environment demographics diversity and quality of life in rural communities Canadian Journal of Fisheries and Aquatic Sciences ,2014 Science John Michels (Journalist),2012 English Mechanics and the World of Science ,1889 Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association American Veterinary Medical Association,2013 Vols for 1915 49 and 1956 include the Proceedings of the annual meeting of the association Canadian Journal of Earth Sciences ,2014 White Paper on Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology ,2012 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1889 Medical Record George Frederick Shrady,Thomas Lathrop Stedman,1909 The World's Parliament of Religions ,1893 The World's Parliament of Religions John Henry Barrows,1893 The World's parliament of religions, an illustrated story of the parliament, held in connection with the Columbian exposition of 1893 [followed by the addresses delivered there] ed. by J.H.
