This book focuses on the unique characteristics, challenges, and contribution of human resource management to the strategic objectives of the nonprofit. It explores contemporary issues that place the management of people at the intersection between the mission strategy and performance of the organization. The book uses the latest theory to build models that explain the determinants and dimensions of strategic HRM within the nonprofit sector. Examines the core HRM functions in the context of the nonprofit sector to provide insight into how nonprofits can optimize HRM contributions to performance. Provides a step-by-step process to develop, implement, and manage HR practices that are aligned with the strategy of the nonprofit organization.
