Manifesto Mary Ann Caws, 2001 An anthology of international manifestos from nineteenth and twentieth century movements in art literature and culture which chronicle the opinions of modern intellectuals about the direction of aesthetics and society Manifesto Mary Ann Caws, 2001-01-01 The first anthology of its kind Manifesto features over two hundred artistic and cultural manifestos from a wide range of countries The manifesto a public statement that sets forth the tenets of a forthcoming existing or potential movement or ism or that plays on the idea of one became in various modernisms a crucial and forceful vehicle for artists writers and other intellectuals to express their ideas about the direction of aesthetics and society Included in this collection are texts ranging from Kurt Schwitters's Cow Manifesto to those written in the name of well known movements imagism cubism surrealism symbolism vorticism projectivism and less well known ones lettrism acmeism concretism rayonism Also covered are expressionist Dada and futurist movements from French Italian Russian Spanish and Latin American perspectives as well as local movements such as Brazilian hallucinism Influential startling unsettling amusing and continually engaging these modernist manifestos give voice to a fascinating array of ideas and opinions that will prove invaluable to scholars and students of nineteenth and twentieth century art literature and culture

Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks, 2017-04-20 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language Recovering

the New Edward S. Cutler, 2003 An innovative look at the process and development of nineteenth century modernism

The Spectator, 2005 Shock and the Senseless in Dada and Fluxus Dorothée Brill, 2010 A groundbreaking analysis of two movements of the historical avant garde Debout sur la cime du monde Jean-Pierre Andreoli Villers, 2008 Art and Life in Aestheticism Kelly Comfort, 2008-01-23 Art for art's sake addresses the relationship between art and life between the aesthetic and the social and promotes the former term over the latter one in each instance Although it has long been argued that aestheticism aims to dehumanize art this volume seeks to consider the counterclaim that such dehumanization can also lead to rehumanization to a deepened relationship between the aesthetic sphere and the world at large and between the artistic receptor and his or her human existence An Anthology of Nineteenth-Century Women's

Poetry from France Gretchen M. Schultz, 2008 Women poets in nineteenth century France made important contributions to major stylistic innovations from the birth of elegiac Romanticism to the inauguration of free verse and many were prominent in their lifetime Yet only a few are known today and nearly all have been unavailable in English translation Of the fourteen poets of this anthology the third bilingual volume in the MLA series Texts and Translations some were wealthy others struggled in poverty some were socially conventional others were cynical or defiant Their poems range widely in style and idea from Romantic to Parnassian to symbolist Gretchen Schultz author of The Gendered Lyric Subjectivity and Difference in Nineteenth Century French Poetry provides literary history and biographical notes to show the crucial role women played in nineteenth century French poetry and to explain why they were criticized and in the creation of the canon often eclipsed
