Allegorical Moments Lyn Hejinian, 2023-11-07 Allegorical Moments is a set of essays dedicated to rethinking allegory and arguing for its significance as a creative and critical response to sociopolitical environmental and existential turmoil affecting the contemporary world Traditionally allegorical interpretation was intended to express an orthodoxy and support an ideology Hejinian attempts to liberate allegory from its dogmatic usages Presenting modern and contemporary materials ranging from the novel to poetry to painting and cinema to activist poetry of the Occupy movement each essay in the book begins again with different materials and from different perspectives Hejinian's generative scholarship looks back to experimental modernism and forward into a future for a vital wayward poetry resistant to the crushing global effects of neoliberalism

Women in British Cinema Sue Harper, 2000-06-01 This book takes a broad perspective and analyses the ways in which the British film industry has dealt with women and their creativity from 1930 to the present The first part of the book deals comprehensively with different historical periods in British film culture showing how the agency of production company director distribution company or scriptwriter can bring about new patterns of female stereotyping The second part looks at the input of women workers into the film process It assesses the work of women in a variety of roles directors such as Wendy Toye and Sally Potter producers such as Betty Box scriptwriters such as Clemence Dane and Muriel Box costume designers such as Shirley Russell and Jocelyn Rickards and editors and art directors This is a polemical book which is written in a lively and often confrontational manner It uses fresh archival material and takes energetic issue with those explanatory models of film analysis which impose easy answers onto complex material

Re-Understanding Media Sarah Sharma, Rianka Singh, 2022-03-23 The contributors to Re-Understanding Media advance a feminist version of Marshall McLuhan's key text Understanding Media: The Extensions of Man repurposing his insight that the medium is the message for feminist ends They argue that while McLuhan's theory provides a falsely universalizing conception of the technological as a structuring form of power feminist critics can take it up to show how technologies alter and determine the social experiences of race gender class and sexuality This volume showcases essays experimental writings and interviews from media studies scholars artists activists and those who work with and create technology Among other topics the contributors extend McLuhan's discussion of transportation technology to the attics and cargo boxes that moved Black women through the Underground Railroad apply McLuhan's concept of media as extensions of humans to analyze Tupperware as media of containment and take up 3D printing as a feminist and decolonial practice The volume demonstrates how power dynamics are built into technological media and how media can be harnessed for radical purposes Contributors Nasma Ahmed Morehshin Allahyari Sarah Banet Weiser Wendy Hui Kyong Chun Brooke Erin Duffy Ganaele Langlois Sara Martel Shannon Mattern Cait McKinney Jeremy Packer Craig Robertson Sarah Sharma Ladan Siad Rianka Singh Nicholas Taylor Armond R Towns and Jennifer Wemigwans
