future Canadian Almanac and Directory, 1847 New Voyages to Carolina Larry E. Tise, Jeffrey J. Crow, 2017-09-14
 New Voyages to Carolina offers a bold new approach for understanding and telling North Carolina's history. Recognizing the need for such a fresh approach and reflecting a generation of recent scholarship, eighteen distinguished authors have sculpted a broad, inclusive narrative of the state's evolution over more than four centuries. The volume provides new lenses and provocative possibilities for reimagining the state's past. Transcending traditional markers of wars and elections, the contributors map out a new chronology encompassing geological realities, the unappreciated presence of Indians, blacks, and women, religious and cultural influences, and abiding preferences for industrial development within the limits of progressive politics. While challenging traditional story lines, the authors frame a candid tale of the state's development. Contributors: Dorothea V. Ames, East Carolina University; Karl E. Campbell, Appalachian State University; James C. Cobb, University of Georgia; Peter A. Coclanis, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Stephen Feeley, McDaniel College; Jerry Gershenhorn, North Carolina Central University; Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore, Yale University; Patrick Huber, Missouri University of Science and Technology; Charles F. Irons, Elon University; David Moore, Warren Wilson College; Michael Leroy Oberg, State University of New York College at Geneseo; Stanley R. Riggs, East Carolina University; Richard D. Muslim Women in Contemporary North America Meena Sharify-Funk, 2022-12-06. Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is a provocative study of how strongly held and divergent opinions, values, and beliefs, as well as misconceptions, overgeneralizations, and political agendas pertaining to Muslim women in the region, enter the public frame of reference. Interrogating contested topics in a series of case studies from both Canada and the United States, this book probes below the surface in pursuit of deeper understanding and more productive dialogue. Chapters analyze controversies over clash literature, dissident reformists, female religious leadership, veils, and the nature of emancipation in a compelling examination of the ways in which Muslim American and Canadian identities and values are being defined, differentiated, and projected. By pinpointing both sources of dissonance and unexpected patterns of resonance among complex, composite, and at times overlapping identity constellations, this book uncovers the impact of controversies on broader cultural negotiations in the United States and Canada. Transforming controversy and cliché into genuine conversation, Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is an invaluable resource for scholars and students in the fields of Islamic and Muslim Studies, Gender Studies, International Relations, Political Science, and Sociology. Annual Report of the Board of Public Education of the First School District of Pennsylvania, Comprising the City of Philadelphia First School District of Pennsylvania (Philadelphia, Pa.)
