The range and suitability of the work submitted

In general, centres did well and submitted work that was suitable. In Part 2, some teachers did not ask questions that were related closely to the visual stimulus. Also in some cases, the visual stimulus was not culturally based. In Part 3, the general conversation was well conducted on the whole, with teachers choosing topics that were relevant to the candidates such as hobbies and future studies. Most teachers asked questions that were of a suitable level for the candidates. In some cases, the teachers asked candidates about another topic such as "introduce yourself" or "introduce your family members" which led to another presentation being made instead of having a general conversation.

Candidate performance against each criterion

Many candidates responded well to the visual stimuli and were able to interact with the teacher naturally during the general conversation. Most candidates succeeded in giving a presentation based on the visual stimuli. Some candidates performed very well in the general conversations, while others required prompting from teachers to sustain the conversation.

Criterion A: The majority of candidates demonstrated an ability to use basic vocabulary very well. Some candidates' performances were beyond the standard of this level and used a wide range of vocabulary successfully. Many candidates were able to use the basic as well as complex grammatical structures in general. Some candidate delivered the messages without much struggle. Only a small number of candidates were unsuccessful in making the audience understand due to the poor intonation or/and pronunciation. Many of these candidates were
