Pacific Railroad in the early 20th century the development of the canyon began in earnest The railroads along with the Santa Fe's business partner the Fred Harvey Company greatly promoted the Grand Canyon as a tourist destination through books pamphlets and magazine advertisements On February 26 1919 Congress established the Grand Canyon National Park and the federal government became a promoter of the Grand Canyon too But perhaps the best promoters of the Grand Canyon were the people who wrote home on picture postcards telling their friends and families about the amazing canyon A number of the postcards published about the park can be found within the pages of this book

The Grand Canyon, Early Impressions Paul Schullery, 1981

Visiting the Grand Canyon Linda L. Stampoulos, 2004-07-21 The Colorado River began carving a course to create the Grand Canyon some four to six million years ago but organized tourism to the natural wonder is fairly young geologically speaking Getting to the view along and below the rim has not always been as convenient as packing up the family car and hitting the road The El Tovar Hotel celebrating its centennial in 2005 had just opened to lodgers when the Canyon was declared a National Monument in 1908 Between the 1890s and the 1920s horses mules river rafts stagecoaches and later railroads and automobiles permitted increasing access to the area Recreation areas businesses catering to tourists and federal preservation programs would eventually mark the Grand Canyon as the ultimate American travel destination

The Grand Canyon Joanne Mattern, 2017-08-01 One of the most visited places in North America Grand Canyon National Park is like an open window to Earth's geologic history The carving of the canyon's walls by erosion left a cross section of the Earth's crust from millions and millions of years ago See for yourself how grand and beautiful this gorgeous gorge really is

The Grand Canyon: National Park, 1986

Grand Canyon For Sale Steve Nash, 2017-09-05 Grand Canyon For Sale is a carefully researched investigation of the precarious future of America's public lands our national parks forests wildlife refuges monuments and wildernesses Taking the Grand Canyon as its key example and using on the ground reporting as well as science research the book makes plain that accelerating climate change will dislocate wildlife populations and vegetation across hundreds of thousands of square miles of the national landscape So what's the plan as the next phase of our political history begins Consolidating protected areas and prioritizing natural systems over mining grazing drilling and logging will be essential But a growing political movement well financed and occasionally violent is fighting to break up these federal lands and return them to state local and private control That scheme would foreclose the future for many wild species which are part of our irreplaceable natural heritage and would lead directly to the ruin of our national parks and forests Grand Canyon For Sale is an excellent overview of the physical biological and political challenges facing our national parks and U.S. public lands today

The Grand Canyon: Native People and Early Visitors Kenneth Shields Jr., 2000-11-09 Unlike appreciating America's other natural wonders such as waterfalls, glaciers, mountains or prairies, one must struggle to absorb, assimilate and comprehend the Grand Canyon's tremendous scale. Captured here in over 250 vintage images is the human drama of survival and coexistence in the canyon from the native tribes who struggled with life on the rim to the pioneers who came to foster and manipulate the early tourist industry in America's oldest natural resource. Covering the tribes that called the canyon home and the seekers who flocked to the area to find their fortune in gold and tourism, author Kenneth Shields exposes the human layers so often overlooked. Seen here are the native tribes who survived the harshest conditions of the canyon, including the Hopi, Havasupai, Navajo and Paiute. Readers will recognize the images of popular tourist spots like the El Tovar Hotel and the Navajo Bridge, as well as the early conservationist faces of Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and William Taft.
