Lenfer Du Silence:

Altered Reading Jill Robbins,1999-05-15 How might the ethical philosophy of the renowned French thinker Emmanuel Levinas relate to literature Because his philosophy addresses the very opening of ethical experience it cannot be applied readily as a critical method to literary texts Yet Levinas s work studied as it is with literary sources and quotations demands a literary account With an attitude at once respectful and interrogative closely attentive to Levinas s texts while in dialogue with readings by Derrida Blanchot and Bataille Altered Reading shows how the thread of the literary leads directly to the internal tensions of Levinas s ethical discourse Jill Robbins provides a comprehensive critical account of Levinas s early and mature philosophy as well as later key transitional essays In an invaluable appendix she includes her own translation of an important previously untranslated essay by Bataille on Levinas Altered Reading will interest philosophers literary critics scholars of religion and others drawn to Levinas s work

Rogues, Romance, and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s Colleen Kennedy-Karpat,2013-04-11 Many popular French films of the 1930s captured the world and brought it into neighborhood cinemas for filmgoers who craved adventure These films often served as visual postcards from the French empire which enjoyed an unprecedented visibility in domestic popular culture between the world wars But the public appetite for the exotic also transcended imperial borders Exoticist films displayed landscapes and different that lay beyond the metropole many of which were not subject to European rule This broad conception of the exotic meant that French narrative cinema represented both colonial and non colonial settings and populations developing a coherent set of tropes that were shaped yet not entirely defined by the politics of imperial rule Empire alone cannot address the full range of the French exoticist imaginary that was projected onto movie screens in the 30s Only by venturing beyond imperial boundaries can we fully understand how the French saw non Westerners and by extension how they saw themselves during this tumultuous decade Rogues Romance and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s proposes a critical framework for exoticist cinema that includes and exceeds the limits of empire From rogue colons to the m tisse in love from the deserts of North Africa to the streets of Shanghai this book identifies and analyzes recurring figures common settings major stars plot devices and narrative outcomes that dominated exoticist cinema at its popular peak
