Martin Heidegger On Technology Ecology And The Arts:

Martin Heidegger on Technology, Ecology, and the Arts A. Lack, 2014-11-04 Lack begins with a discussion of Max Weber's analysis of the disenchantment of the world and proceeds to develop Heidegger's philosophy in a way that suggests a re-enchantment of the world that faces the modern condition squarely without nostalgia Reframing Human Endeavors Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2023-04-21 This ambitious text is a monograph about human experiences concerning the potentialities, capacities, and features of humankind from the wholeness of the collective mind/body/spirit. The purpose in reframing human endeavors is for enhanced alignment for livability and sustainability. This book departs from the concept and practice of design and technology and argues that most crises that endanger and destruct our ecological livability and sustainability come from our way of thinking and doing with design and technology based on the necessity for control. It is the control for overcoming the fear of scarcity, starvation, and the unknown. This book is rather an attempt to find alternate ways of decision making through holistic methods. It appeals to researchers working in design, sustainability, architecture, and urban studies Phenomenology of Film Shawn Loht, 2017-08-25 Phenomenology of Film: A Heideggerian Account of the Film

Experience uses the philosophy of Martin Heidegger as a framework for addressing key issues in the philosophy of film. This study grapples with the question of how we can reconcile film as a popular entertainment medium with Heidegger's own various critiques of popular media and culture throughout his career. Shawn Loht also explores topics such as the ontology of film and moving images, the phenomenological character of the viewer experience, film conceived as an art medium, and the function of films as vehicles for philosophical thought. He further discusses important concepts from Heidegger's philosophy: Dasein, existentiality, world, art, and poetry, and the nature of philosophy. The first four chapters take up these issues from a theoretical perspective. The remaining chapters provide robust application of the theoretical material to the films of three contemporary filmmakers: Terrence Malick, Michael Haneke, and David Gordon Green. As the first single-author monograph that takes up Heidegger's relevance to film, Phenomenology of Film will be of particular interest to philosophers of film and specialists of film and media studies working in the intersection of phenomenology and film or phenomenological approaches to issues in popular culture Returning to Interpersonal Dialogue and Understanding Human Communication in the Digital Age Brown Sr., Michael A., Hersey, Leigh, 2018-07-20 Digital collaboration is abundant in today's world, but it is often problematic and does not provide an apt solution to the human need for comprehensive communication. Humans require more personal interactions beyond what can be achieved online. Returning to Interpersonal Dialogue and Understanding Human Communication in the Digital Age is a collection of innovative studies on the methods and applications of comparing online human interactions to face-to-face interactions. While highlighting topics including digital collaboration, social media, and privacy, this book is a vital reference source for public administrators, educators, businesses, academicians, and researchers seeking current research on the importance of non-digital communication between people Re-enchanting

Discovering Design Richard Buchanan, Victor Margolin, 1995-04-15 Discovering Design reflects the growing recognition that the design of the everyday world deserves attention not only as a professional practice but as a subject of social cultural and philosophic investigation Victor Margolin cofounder and an editor of the journal Design Issues and Richard Buchanan also an editor of the journal bring together eleven essays by scholars in fields ranging from psychology sociology and political theory to technology studies rhetoric and philosophy The essayists share the editors concern first made clear in Margolin's Design Discourse History Theory Criticism with the the development of design studies as a field of interdisciplinary research The contributors Gianfranco Zaccai Albert Borgmann Richard Buchanan Augusto Morello Tufan Orel Nigel Cross Victor Margolin Langdon Winner Carl Mitcham Tony Fry and Ezio Manzini focus on three broad themes that form a sequence of fundamental issues how to shape design as a subject matter how to distinguish the activity of designing in the complex world of action and how to address the basic questions of value and responsibility that persistently arise in the discussion and practice of design The editors introduction provides a useful overview of these questions and offers a multidisciplinary framework for design studies

The essays discuss such topics as the relation of aesthetics to technology the place of design in social action the role of the consumer in design decisions and the need for ethical practice in contemporary design Manzini's concluding essay shows how the issue of ethics should connect responsible behavior to decisions made every day in the manufacture of objects

Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2000 Philosophy of Science Association Newsletter Philosophy of Science Association, 1989 Heidegger, Technology and Environment John Robert Ferguson, 1988 Heidegger on Technology Aaron James Wendland, Christopher Merwin, Christos Hadjioannou, 2018-09-13 This collection offers the first comprehensive and definitive account of Martin Heidegger's philosophy of technology It does so through a detailed analysis of canonical texts and recently published primary sources on two crucial concepts in Heidegger's later thought Gelassenheit and Gestell Gelassenheit translated as releasement and Gestell often translated as enframing stand as opposing ideas in Heidegger's work whereby the meditative thinking of Gelassenheit counters the dangers of our technological framing of the world in Gestell After opening with a scholarly overview of Heidegger's philosophy of technology as a whole this volume focuses on important Heideggerian critiques of science technology and modern industrialized society as well as Heidegger's belief that transformations in our thought processes enable us to resist the restrictive domain of modern techno scientific practice Key themes discussed in this collection include the history development and defining features of modern technology the relationship between scientific theories and their technological instantiations the nature of human agency and the essence of education in the age of technology and the ethical political and environmental impact of our current techno scientific customs This volume also addresses the connection between Heidegger's critique of technology and his involvement with the Nazis Finally and with contributions from a number of renowned Heidegger scholars the original essays in this collection will be of great interest to students of Philosophy Technology Studies the History of Science Critical Theory Environmental Studies Education Sociology and Political Theory The Trumpeter, 1983 Heidegger's Confrontation with Modernity Michael E. Zimmerman, 1990-05-22 Writing in a lively and refreshingly clear American English Zimmerman provides an uncompromisingly honest and judicious account of Heidegger's views on technology and his involvement with National Socialism One of the most important books on Heidegger in recent years John D Caputo superb Thomas Sheehan The New York Review of Books thorough and complex Choice excellent guide to Heidegger as eco philosopher Radical Philosophy engrossing rich in substance makes clear Heidegger's importance for the issue of technology ethics and politics Religious Studies Review The relation between Martin Heidegger's understanding of technology and his affiliation with and conception of National Socialism is the leading idea of this fascinating and revealing book Zimmerman shows that the key to the relation between Heidegger's philosophy and his politics was his concern with the nature of working and production World Art, 1996 The Culture of Extinction Frederic L. Bender, 2003-09 No Marketing Blurbs Environmental Ethics, 1985 Green Dialogue for an Alternative World Order Hans Köchler, 1995 Spirit of the Machine Robert

Kronenburg, 2001 This book examines the influence that science and industry has had in the inspiration of design with particular emphasis on the field of architecture Using case studies it explores the expression of technology in all areas of the built and manufactured environment concentrating on current and future developments and their exponents Speculates about a new design approach that explores innovative and alternative technologies Compares the technological design work of engineers and scientists with architects Relates experiments with architectural form and structure technology transfer and ecologically aware design strategies to human requirements and ambitions Heidegger and the Environment Casey Rentmeester, 2015-12-04 In the past few decades it has become clear that the Western world's relation to nature has led to environmental degradation so wide ranging that it threatens the existence of human civilizations as we have come to know them The onset of anthropogenic climate change and the increasing threats of resource depletions are the most obvious signs of an environmental crisis This book attempts to examine the metaphysical underpinnings of our current environmental crisis thereby viewing it from a philosophical perspective Using Martin Heidegger's writings on the history of being as its lynchpin it examines how humans have come to view nature as a giant array of mere resources to be maximally exploited Following Heidegger Casey Rentmeester argues that this understanding of nature is rooted in the understanding of what it means to be that came about in ancient Greece Rentmeester then utilizes elements of Heidegger's post metaphysical later philosophy and aspects of early philosophical Daoism to create an alternative way to think about the relation between humans and nature that is environmentally sustainable
