Exploring Multilingualism and Multiscriptism in Written Artefacts Szilvia Sövegjártó,Márton Vér,2024-05-06 This book explores multilingualism and multiscriptism in a great variety of writing cultures offering an in depth analysis of how diverse languages and scripts seamlessly intertwine within written artefacts Insights into scribal practices are particularly illuminating in that respect especially when exploring artefacts originating from multicultural communities and regions where distinct writing traditions intersect The influence of multilingualism and multiscriptism on these writing cultures becomes evident with essays spanning various domains from the mundane aspects of everyday life to the realms of scholarship and political propaganda Scholars often relegate these phenomena despite being frequently encountered to the status of exceptions compared to the more prevalent monolingualism and monoscriptism However in daring to challenge this viewpoint this book emphasises the profound significance and relevance of multilingualism and multiscriptism in shaping the development of languages cultures and societies across Asia Africa and Europe It caters to a diverse readership keen on delving into the intricacies of these phenomena within this rich tapestry of writing cultures
