Keeping My Best Friend Fated Series English Edition:

The Soulforge Margaret Weis, 2011-10-11 Discover the early history of Raistlin Majere one of Dragonlance's most complicated yet beloved characters in this prequel to the wildly popular Dragonlance Chronicles and Legends series. A mage's soul is forged in the crucible of magic. Raistlin Majere is six years old when he meets an archmage who enrolls him in a school for the study of magic. Weak and frail and tormented by jealousy and inadequacy compared to his twin brother Caramon, the gifted boy begins to forge his wizarding skills. But shadows are darkening over Raistlin even as the same shadows lengthen over all of Ansalon. As Raistlin's wizarding apprenticeship draws nearer to the end, he must first take the Dread Test in the Tower of High Sorcery. It will change his life forever. The Soulforge is the first of two novels in The Raistlin Chronicles series followed by Brothers in Arms.

The Long Black Veil Robert Cooperman, 2006 This collection of poems offers a clever take on an old Appalachian folk story, The Long Black Veil, in which an accused murderer chooses to be hanged instead of admitting that he was making love to his best friend's wife while the murder was being committed with over 90 poems recounting the tale from various townspeople's points of view including the best friend, the murder victim, the judge, and the murderer.

The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams, a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers, this exceptionally well-printed little magazine contained well-written essays of a moral character, plenty of poetry, articles on historical and scientific matters, and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems, her sister Phoebe Cary, Otway Curry, Moncure D. Conway, and Joshua R. Giddings. New England contributors included Mrs. Lydia Sigourney, Hannah F. Gould, and Julia C. R. Dorr. By 1851, each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates, usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E. Clark took over the editorship in 1853, the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40,000. Unlike his predecessors, Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war, it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies' Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays, sketches, and poems, its good steel engravings, and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own. Cf.
