Plax, 1993 This theory based introduction to basic concepts in human communication provides coverage of new and innovative theories as well as the more traditional coverage of an introduction to communication course giving students an understanding of the discipline and helping them develop strategies for becoming better communicators Mastering Communication in Contemporary America Melvin Lawrence DeFleur, Patricia Kearney, Timothy G. Plax, 1993 This text discusses the nature and application of the principles of human communication It addresses both interpersonal and mass communication and explores critical similarities and differences between animal and human communication The first eight chapters provide students with a strong foundation of the concepts and research supported theories The second half of the book uses this foundation to focus on practical applications including influencing others coping with conflicts and speaking before a group Plans, Sections and Elevations Richard Weston, 2004 CD ROM contains files for all of the plans sections and elevations included in the book World Dredging & Marine Construction, 1975 Restraint & Surrender Sarah Anne McNear, Allentown Art Museum, 1994 Landscape of Migration Ben Nobbs-Thiessen, 2020-03-19 In the wake of a 1952 revolution leaders of Bolivia s National Revolutionary Movement MNR embarked on a program of internal colonization known as the March to the East In an impoverished country dependent on highland mining the MNR sought to convert the nation s vast undeveloped Amazonian frontier into farmland hoping to achieve food security territorial integrity and demographic balance To do so they encouraged hundreds of thousands of Indigenous Bolivians to relocate from the overcrowded Andes to the tropical lowlands but also welcomed surprising transnational migrant streams including horse and buggy Mennonites from Mexico and displaced Okinawans from across the Pacific Ben Nobbs Thiessen details the multifaceted results of these migrations on the environment of the South American interior As he reveals one of the migrants with the greatest impact was the soybean which Bolivia embraced as a profitable cash crop while eschewing earlier goals of food security creating a new model for extractive export agriculture Half a century of colonization would transform the small regional capital of Santa Cruz de la Sierra into Bolivia s largest city and the diverging stories of Andean Mennonite and Okinawan migrants complicate our understandings of tradition modernity foreignness and belonging in the heart of a rising agro industrial empire Cold-Case Christianity J.
