Ali, Abdulrahman Al-Aali, 2011-10-31

Global Talent Management Akram Al Ariss, 2014-04-28 This book bridges the research and practice of global talent management. It opens important theoretical and practical avenues to understand the concept internationally while focusing on developing and emerging countries. Chapters derive from various geographic regions and embrace cross-national comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives. An open and inclusive approach is used in assessing the challenges of global talent management strategies to overcome these challenges and in charting opportunities for future talent management. These three dimensions are crucial to academic researchers and business practitioners for envisioning a positive future role of talent management in businesses and societies. Cultural Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism, it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world. The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa. The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions. Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions. Key Features: Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods: prehistory to 1250, 1250 to 1920, and 1920 to the present. One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa, and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia, and a final volume to West Central and South Asia. The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content. Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region. Key Themes: Arts, Culture, and Science; People, Society, and Dynasties; Religion and Law; Family and Daily Life; Conflicts and Wars; Politics and Government; Health and Education; Economy, Trade, and Industry; National Geography and History. Ethical and Social Perspectives on Global Business Interaction in Emerging Markets Al-Shammari, Minwir, 2016-02-10 Societal demands, needs, and perspectives of ethical and socially responsible behavior within business environments are a driving force for corporate self-regulation. As such, executives must consistently work to understand the current definition of ethical business behavior and strive to meet the expectations of the cultures and communities they serve.

Ethical and Social Perspectives on Global Business Interaction in Emerging Markets compiles current research relating to business ethics within developing markets around the world. This timely publication features research on topics essential to remaining competitive in the modern global marketplace such as corporate social responsibility, corporate governance, consumer behavior, understanding and ethical leadership, and how all of these components attribute to the decision making process in business environments. Business executives and managers, graduate level students and academics will find this publication to be essential to their research, professional and educational needs. Strategic Management (Arab World Editions). Fred R. David, 2011. Strategic Management Arab World Editions. Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church. Joseph Nehemiah, 2020-12-31. The church is a contextualized reality and if it is to flourish its leaders must be raised up to serve their own communities. Yet our very techniques for teaching and learning are culturally defined. If the church is to be effective in developing the leaders it needs, our approach to training must be informed by its local context. In this immensely practical text, Joseph Nehemiah combines sound pedagogical research with rich cultural insight to provide a framework for training leaders in an Arab context. Examining principles of adult education in light of Arab cultural dynamics, Nehemiah offers a paradigm for experiential learning that is biblically rooted and contextually appropriate. Informed by the experience of professors in the Arab Gulf along with extensive interviews from local church leaders, Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church seeks to place the development, teaching and training of leaders into the hands of the local church.

CSR in the Middle East. Yusuf Sidani, 2012-09-18. The practice of corporate social responsibility (CSR) in the Middle East is explored in this volume through a unique compilation of data and perspectives from authors living and working in the region. The authors demonstrate how the long entrenched traditions of philanthropy and generosity in Arab culture have been reinvigorated in recent years and are starting to cross fertilize with new and more institutionalized forms of giving advocated through advances pertaining to CSR. Using a variety of cases, this book ponders the multiple facets of CSR in the region including philanthropy, strategic giving, social entrepreneurship, internal CSR and responsible human resource management practices, effective CSR integration in SMEs, corporate environmental responsibility and its evolution, CSR reporting and lingering challenges in this respect. It also considers the relevance and applicability of CSR to a wider spectrum of societal actors and institutions. The contributions nicely capture and reiterate commitment to CSR in the Middle East. Social
