

THE NAMESAKE - JHUMPA LAHIRI

Q1 Do you agree with the title of the novel " the namesake"?

——→ I believe that the title of the book is very apt. Ashoke and Ashima named their son Gogol after Ashoke's favorite writer " NIKOLAI GOGOL". Throughout the book we find wars of acceptance and understanding fought between Gogol and his NAMESAKE.

Gogol's name made it difficult for him to fit in with his American friends . He started to despise his name and he would have beads of perspiration on his face when teachers would discuss the history of Nikolai Gogol as he went through a very slow and depressing death by starvation and did not live a very luxurious life . After high school he did change his name to "Nikhil".

All his life he thought that the reason he was named gogol was that he was his father's favorite writer , oh boy was he wrong .

Ashoke told him the actual reason behind his name and he narrates a story of 19 year old Ashoke returning to his grandfather's place from jadavpur university via a train . He tells him about the traumatic train wreck . But that night Ashoke survived and in that moment which could have been his last breath , he clutched a few pages of "the overcoat" by nickolai gogol . When gogol Asked " when you hear my name , do i remind you of that night baba?" Ashoke replies "no, it reminds me of everything that followed."

Teaching Contemporary English Literature Hans Osterwalder, 2017-08-14 This book provides a theoretical introduction to the task-based methodology in language and literature teaching. For teachers, the main points of interest are Part Two and Three, where a plethora of contemporary texts, both from Britain and the US, are given a literary analysis, which is followed by detailed task-based lesson plans. Part Two focuses on multiculturalism, one of the seminal issues of our time. Part Three tackles gender, another highly topical theme, which students are naturally interested in. Well-known authors like the British Asian writer Hanif Kureish and the Indian American novelist Jhumpa Lahiri feature in the chapter on multiculturalism. The gender question is represented by Carol Ann Duffy, the current Poet Laureate, and Caryl Churchill, the main representative of feminist drama.

Indian Writings in English Binod Mishra, Sanjay Kumar, 2006 Since its inception in the 19th century, Indian writing in English has coruscated worldwide, and the English works of Indian authors have been highly appreciated even by the people of English-speaking nations, not remaining confined to the restricted gamut of themes and style of olden days. Indian writing in English has made its dent in myriad human concerns at the hands of a great number of Indian writers. In the present anthology, a sincere attempt has been made to provide an in-depth study of the works of reputed Indian authors like Bhabani Bhattacharya, Amitabh Ghosh, Shashi Tharoor, Raj Kamal Jha, Arundhati Roy, Jhumpa Lahiri, Shobha De, Manju Kapur, Anita Nair, to name but a few, aiming at encouraging variegated opinions without conforming to fixed and rigorous critical canons. The anthology not only focuses on novels but also on the other forms of literature that are brilliant evocations of historical, philosophical, and social issues of great importance. It also traverses through psychological and subliminal issues. Contributors to the present anthology have explored the varied aspects of literary works of the noted and award-winning writers, besides analysing critically and impartially the question of equal rights for women raised by the eminent Indian writers in their works. It is hoped that Indian writings in English would prove indispensable for the students of English literature and would even appeal to those interested in the English works of Indian writers. It will undoubtedly enkindle in readers an avid interest towards their works and also help them sharpen their critical understanding with its ample food for thought.
