Mckinsey Report On Schools:

The Politics of Differentiation in Schools Martin Mills, Amanda Keddle, Peter Renshaw, Sue Monk, 2016-10-26 In many English speaking countries teachers are encouraged to differentiate their classrooms and in some cases through various policy mechanisms This encouragement is often accompanied by threats and sanctions for not making the grade By exploring the ways in which one education system in Australia has mandated differentiation through an audit of teacher practices this book provides a timely engagement with the relationship between differentiated classrooms and social justice It covers tensions for instance between providing culturally appropriate classrooms including constructing engaging and relevant curricula and lowering expectations for students who have traditionally been marginalised by schooling The data for this book has been collected from the same group of teachers over a period of three years and offers detailed insights into how a particular politics of differentiation has played itself out in the context of a global reform movement that has focused on improving student outcomes Leadership, Capacity Building and School Improvement Clive Dimmock, 2011-12-07

Leadership Capacity Building and School Improvement provides a fresh and original perspective on the most important issues confronting today's practitioners and academics in the field of educational leadership New and exciting concepts are introduced such as the research engaged school of the future While its theoretical and evidence based approach raises to a robust level the discussion on the most important leadership challenges of the day the book is at the same time intensely practical in addressing everyday issues faced by contemporary policy makers and school practitioners Underpinning the eleven chapters is a conceptual framework founded on the notion of leadership as capacity building giving the book a coherence that many others on school leadership lack Among the themes actively discussed are Conceptualising and Contextualising Leadership what is leadership What distinguishes good from mediocre and poor leaders What are the traits dispositions and attributes that make for good leadership How does context influence leadership How appealing is leadership as a career What are the components of capacity building leadership Contemporary Leadership Themes what is learning centred leadership and how can it best promote good teaching and student learning How can leaders distribute leadership across the school and what are the pitfalls How can leaders capitalise on the notion of the school as a professional learning community How can leaders best be nurtured and developed Policy Leadership Practice and Impact what new forms of leadership are presaged by the specialist schools policy as a means of school improvement How can schools combine a focus on academic achievement with the need to prepare students for the changing twenty first century workplace Leadership Capacity Building and School Improvement provides an up to date authoritative critical and insightful account of school leadership It combines advocacy and argument with evidence based practice drawn from the most plausible and robust sources This book will prove a valuable tool for those taking higher degrees in school leadership and management school leaders on NPQH courses and school practitioners as a whole interested in interfacing with the latest empirical evidence and ideas as well as academics teaching and researching in the area of educational leadership Since the book adopts an international perspective drawing its examples and evidence from both the Anglo American and the Asian contexts it will be found relevant to academics policy makers and practitioners across these regions Clive Dimmock is Visiting Professor at the National Institute of Education in Singapore and Professor Emeritus at the University of Leicester UK FCC Record United States.
