

Questionnaire for library users :

Library Services Satisfaction Survey

Introduction

We are carrying out an evaluation of some of the library's services, to see if we can improve facilities and make them more relevant for our students. Thank you for taking the time to fill in this questionnaire, it should only take 10 minutes. Please return your completed questionnaire to any member of our group. Your answers will be treated with complete confidentiality, and unless you choose to provide an e-mail address, will be entirely anonymous. If you have any questions about this questionnaire, please contact [fatim shakila bt mohad zainuddin].

The Evaluation and Measurement of Library Services Joseph R. Matthews, 2017-10-27 This guide provides library directors managers and administrators in all types of libraries with complete and up to date instructions on how to evaluate library services in order to improve them It s a fact today s libraries must evaluate their services in order to find ways to better serve patrons and prove their value to their communities In this greatly updated and expanded edition of Matthews seminal text you ll discover a breadth of tools that can be used to evaluate any library service including newer tools designed to measure customer and patron outcomes The book offers practical advice backed by solid research on virtually every aspect of evaluation including quantitative and qualitative tools data analysis and specific recommendations for measuring individual services such as technical services and reference and interlibrary loan New chapters give readers effective ways to evaluate critical aspects of their libraries such as automated systems physical space staff performance management frameworks eBooks social media and information literacy The author explains how broader and more robust adoption of evaluation techniques will help library managers combine traditional internal measurements such as circulation and reference transactions with more customer centric metrics that reflect how well patrons feel they are served and how satisfied they are with the library By applying this comprehensive strategy readers will gain the ability to form a truer picture of their library s value to its stakeholders and patrons Making Surveys Work for Your Library Robin Miller, Kate Hinnant, 2018-12-01 Instead of using expensive off the shelf surveys or relying on a poorly worded survey read Making Surveys Work for Your Library and design your own that collect actionable data Library listservs and websites are littered with examples of surveys that are too long freighted with complex language and generally poorly designed The survey however is a widely used tool that has great potential if designed well Libraries can implement surveys for a variety of purposes including planning program evaluation collection development and space design Making Surveys Work for Your Library Guidance Instructions and Examples offers librarians a contemporary and practical approach to creating surveys that answer authentic questions about library users Miller and Hinnant have experience designing deploying and analyzing quantitative and qualitative data from large scale web based user surveys of library patrons as well as smaller survey instruments targeted to special populations Here they offer library professionals a guide to developing and examples of concise surveys that gather the data they need to make evidence based decisions define the scope of future research and understand their patrons Library Services for Online Patrons Joelle E. Pitts, Laura Bonella, Jason M. Coleman, Adam Wathen, 2019-10-16 This practical and holistic approach to offering library resources and services to online patrons addresses multiple areas of service to online patrons including reference instruction access and marketing Academic libraries are wonderful resources for university students and faculty on campus and public libraries thrive on providing targeted in person services such as storytime makerspaces and adult programming It can be easy however to forget about the large population of students faculty and community members who access library resources and use library services remotely Library Services for Online Patrons reaches out to patrons who are not or not always located on campus or who seldom if ever visit libraries physical facilities and who may not be aware of or able to equitably use library services The authors focus on ways to organize library resources using principles of design and to cater library services to the specific needs of online students faculty and community members They also address how to effectively target marketing to the online population and how to collaborate with campus and community stakeholders who work directly with them
