Law For Recreation And Sport Managers:

Law for Recreation and Sport Managers Doyice Cotten, John T. Wolohan, 2017 Law for Recreation and Sport Managers, 2003 LAW FOR RECREATION AND SPORT MANAGERS. DOYICE J.. WOLOHAN COTTEN (JOHN.), 2020

Law for Recreation & Sport Managers John T. Wolohan, 2024 Since 1997 Law for Recreation and Sport Managers has been the leading recreation and sports law book for undergraduate and graduate sport management and recreation programs. Designed for both undergraduate and graduate students, the book is divided into seven approachable sections plus additional materials that educate readers on the complex issues of recreation and sport law. Publisher's description: Law for Recreation and Sport Managers John T. Wolohan, T. Jesse Wilde, 2001. This text for undergraduate and graduate courses covers negligence law, intentional torts, and criminal acts, risk management, contract law, constitutional law, and sport and legislation. Each chapter begins with an introduction, then explains fundamental concepts, presents a significant case, and discusses recent developments in the area. Material is written in plain language, and key terms are highlighted and defined. This second edition contains 18 new and revised chapters with greatly expanded material on risk management. The first edition was titled Sport Law for Sport Managers. c. Book News Inc. Sport Law for Sport Managers Doyice Cotten, T. Jesse Wilde, 1997 Sport and Body Cultures in East and Southeast Asia Friederike Trotter, Alan Bairner, 2017-12-01. Despite a widely held and not entirely erroneous view that the cultures of East and Southeast Asia commonly favour the mind over the body or at least mental activity rather than physical endeavour, this collection of essays sheds light on the wide range of diverse ways in which sport and body cultures feature in that part of the world. Contributors to the collection work in many different countries but are united in their shared interest in increasing our understanding of the social role of sport and body cultures, which is manifest in their work. The countries that are discussed are Indonesia, the People's Republic of China, Singapore, Taiwan, South Korea, and the former Netherlands New Guinea. Themes considered in these chapters are the implications of hosting sport events, the focus on sport and the body by a group of Buddhist monastics, belly dancing in the lives of women in Taiwan, the sociopolitical role of the scouting movement in a colonial setting, and issues relating to the functioning of sport clubs. The chapters were originally published in Asia Pacific Journal of Sport and Social Science. Sport Law Anita M. Moorman, 2020-12-28. Now in its fourth edition, this text is still the only sport law textbook to introduce sport legal studies from a management perspective and integrate legal strategies to gain a competitive advantage in business. Acknowledging that students understand legal concepts better when they are tied to real sport management practice, the book is organized around the core management functions. It provides concise explanations of key concepts as well as current industry examples and legal cases and gives the student all the legal knowledge they need to become confident and effective professionals in sport management, recreation, or sport education. This new edition includes additional contributions from leading sport law educators and practitioners and has expanded coverage of important contemporary issues, including Sports injury and concussion litigation Impact of Covid 19 on events and leagues Gender discrimination disability discrimination sexual harassment metoo and USWNT pay equity Intellectual property licensing agreements publicity rights social media influencers and digital privacy Student athletes and marketing rights Sport gambling and state regulation Athlete activism employee free speech and collective bargaining Olympic and Paralympic restructuring NCAA Division 1 Coaches Contracts The book contains useful features and ancillaries to help with teaching and learning including managerial context tables case opinions focus cases strategies for competitive advantage discussion questions and learning activities It is an essential text for any course on sport law or recreation law an invaluable supplement to any course on sport business and management and an important reference for all sport management practitioners Online resources include a variety of exam questions for each chapter featuring multiple choice true or false short answer exam questions and short essay questions and a sample syllabus

Sport Law Linda Sharp, Cathryn Claussen, Anita Moorman, 2017-01-01 Sport Law A Managerial Approach third edition merges law and sport management in a way that is accessible and straightforward Its organization continues to revolve around management functions rather than legal theory Concise explanations coupled with relevant industry examples and cases give readers just enough legal doctrine to understand the important concepts that apply to each area This book will help prepare students as they get ready to assume a broad range of responsibilities in sport education or recreation Whether readers work as coaches or teachers administer professional programs manage fitness health clubs or assume roles in a high school college Olympic or professional sport organization legal concerns will inevitably be woven into their managerial concerns This book provides knowledge of the law that helps create a competitive advantage and build a more efficient and successful operation that better serves the needs of its constituents New to the Third Edition New expanded discussions and analysis of current and relevant legal issues For example the use of unpaid interns and unpaid volunteers Bountygate organizational liability for violent acts of players and the power of the NFL commissioner parody and social media FTC guidelines for endorsers New case opinions For example Bouchat v Baltimore Ravens Glatt v Fox Searchlight Pictures New focus cases For example Hart v Electronic Arts Inc Hamill v Cheley Colorado Camps Inc Geczi v Lifetime Fitness Limones v School Dist of Lee County Woodman v Kera LLC New competitive advantage strategies For example construction safety ticket sales workera s compensation and student athletes Discussion of the legal issues revolving around social media use For example Mendenhall v Hanesbrands and the use of Twitter by professional athletes IOC guidelines regarding the use of social media by athletes and journalists social media policies at the high school and collegiate levels Real world applications The book is intended for future sport managers and topics are clearly related to specific roles and functions relevant and timely examples throughout help generate enthusiasm and lively class discussions Continued focus on both sport participation and recreation Sport managers in a variety of organizations can use the legal issues discussed throughout Reader friendly tone Legal theories are clearly explained in student friendly language Special Features of the Book Managerial context tables Chapter opening exhibits act as organizational and study tools identifying managerial contexts in relation to major legal issues relevant law and illustrative cases for the chapter Case opinions focus cases and hypothetical cases Legal opinions both excerpted case opinions and summarized focus cases illustrate relevant legal points and help readers understand the interplay between fact and legal theory The cases include questions for discussion and the instructora s manual provides guidance for the discussion Hypothetical cases further highlight topics of interest and include discussion questions to facilitate understanding of the material analysis and possible responses appear at the end of the chapter Competitive advantage strategies Highlighted focused strategies based on discussions in the text help readers understand how to use the law to make sound operational decisions and will assist them in working effectively with legal counsel Discussion questions learning activities and case studies Thoughtful and thought provoking questions and activities emphasize important concepts they help instructors teach and readers review the material Creative case studies stimulate readers as future sport or recreation managers to analyze situations involving a legal issue presented in the chapter Annotated websites Each chapter includes a collection of web resources to help readers explore topics further Accompanying the web addresses are brief descriptions pointing out key links and the sites benefits Bookmarking these sites will help readers in future research or throughout their careers

Where Sport Marketing Theory Meets Practice Brenda G. Pitts, 2005 As SMA President and host of SMA II the second annual SMA Conference it gives me great pride to share this book with members of the Association as well as an extended readership base The collection of outstanding papers contained within this manuscript is drawn from over one hundred and fifty academic presentations delivered during the three day conference held in Memphis Tennessee November

18 20 2004 attracting more than three hundred sport marketing scholars professionals and students From Richard Irwin s preface A Word From the President Making the Team Jay Johnson, Margery Jean Holman, 2004 Media attention has recently raised public awareness of hazing rituals generating curiosity interest and debate about hazing as an initiation practice Making the Team is a ground breaking collection of contemporary perspectives on this topic This book provides a theoretical analysis of hazing from a sociological perspective both in the United States and in Canada It is designed to provide an understanding of hazing for use in sociology and sport management classes and is also highly suitable for courses that examine gender roles and socialisation The collection chronicles the hazing practices that exist in sport and offers an historical overview of hazing and its emergence in today s sport culture It also provides a theoretical and legal guide for understanding and managing hazing in sport The discussion focuses on the role of tradition power and violence in hazing and on how the rituals serve as a confirmation of masculinity and dominance These issues engage the reader in critical thought about a contentious aspect of sport that until recently has gone unchallenged Facility Planning and Design for Health, Physical Activity, Recreation, and Sport Thomas H. Sawyer, 2009 Originally published in 1946 as the Guide for Planning Facilities for Athletics Recreation Physical Health Education this book has become a cornerstone resource for facility designers users and managers With cost of construction for sports and health related facilities skyrocketing new technology and changes in construction methods this is an essential resource for all professionals involved in facility planning and construction Sport and Criminal Behavior Jason W. Lee, Jeffrey C. Lee, 2009 Sport is filled with many paradoxes Although fitness strength and other seemingly healthful benefits are inherently part of sport there is also the constant presence of unhealthy and inappropriate associations This dichotomy is quite prevalent in many forms in contemporary sport and Sport and Criminal Behavior examines some of the most relevant and thought provoking occurrences of criminal and quasi criminal behavior in sport By identifying pertinent issues including motives and causes associated with such actions this work presents a comprehensive view of these issues while providing ways such matters can be effectively dealt with in contemporary society Among the topics addressed in this work are drug issues violence gambling ticket scalping hazing fraud in nonprofit sport homeland security issues and disaster preparedness in sport and intellectual property trademark law copyright misappropriation and criminal implications The book is designed as an introductory textbook for college level sport management students and as such it succeeds But other readers will find it an interesting beginning treatment of a timely topic Summing Up Recommended CHOICE Magazine Contemporary Athletics Compendium James Harry Humphrey, 2009 This book is concerned with all levels of athletics interscholastic intercollegiate club and professional Articles on all aspects of contemporary athletics are invited Topics include but are not limited to event scheduling stress sports medicine graduation rates academic eligibility gender issues commercialization funding or the lack of it sports psychology sports sociology parental aggression coaching drug use in athletics teamwork philosophy athletic competition participation in
