Lessons from our Students Stacey Cabaj, Andrea Odinov, 2023-12-08 Lessons from our Students Meditations on Performance Pedagogy is a collection of thirty short personal case studies about pedagogical issues that arise in theater classrooms and rehearsals Teaching in the acting and performance classroom is rapidly changing in the early 2020s In the wake of the global pandemic online education massive trauma and a social justice revolution educators are seeking wisdom clarity and reassurance about their pedagogy The authors speak to the current moment and the unique challenges of teaching theater by presenting a personal practical and authentic expression of vulnerability humanity and artistry as teachers Through thirty personal meditations the authors pose reflective questions and discussion prompts that evaluate the craft of teaching theater issues that arise and ideas about how to respond with vision and integrity Accompanying exercises invite readers to reflect on their own teaching practices This book serves as a text for theater teachers and teachers in training in search of inspiration validation and transformation in drama education and theater pedagogy classes

Teaching English in Africa Anderson, Jason, 2016-04-30 Teaching English in Africa is a practical guide written for primary and secondary school teachers working all over the continent This book relates the practice of English language teaching directly to the African context As well as covering the underlying theory of how children learn languages and how teachers can best facilitate this learning it also provides practical resources and ideas for activities and techniques that have proved successful in English classrooms in Africa both at primary and secondary level It is intended to be a practical guide so references and citations are kept to a minimum and concepts are presented using examples that are likely to be familiar to most teachers working in Africa If there is a bias in this book it is towards the needs of teachers working in low resource isolated contexts in Africa as these teachers are so often neglected by literature on teaching methodology

SCRIVENER, 2017 Thinking Theologically about Language Teaching Cheri L. Pierson, Will Bankston, 2017-08-31 Christians can often overlook the need to bring their daily vocations in accord with the reality created sustained and purposed through Christ This is no less true for language teachers who find themselves at a difficult interdisciplinary crossroads where the paths of linguistics culture and education merge This challenge should not discourage these educators but instead aid them in their journey to form a pedagogy rooted in theological truths from Scripture one that provides a nuanced approach that glorifies God in a manner specific to the language classroom The contributors of this book outline why and how theology must inform teaching methods so that Christian language educators might better serve their students with both faith and excellence thereby pointing them to the communicative God whose image they bear
