Public Sector Reform in the Middle East and North Africa Robert P. Beschel Jr.,Tarik M. Yousef,2020-12-01 Critical examinations of efforts to make governments more efficient and responsive Political upheavals and civil wars in the Middle East and North Africa MENA have obscured efforts by many countries in the region to reform their public sectors Unwieldy unresponsive and often corrupt governments across the region have faced new pressure not least from their publics to improve the quality of public services and open up their decisionmaking processes Some of these reform efforts were under way and at least partly successful before the outbreak of the Arab Spring in 2010 Reform efforts have continued in some countries despite the many upheavals since then This book offers a comprehensive assessment of a wide range of reform efforts in nine countries In six cases the reforms targeted core systems of government Jordan s restructuring of cabinet operations the Palestinian Authority s revision of public financial management Morocco s voluntary retirement program human resource management reforms in Lebanon an e governance initiative in Dubai and attempts to improve transparency in Tunisia Five other reform efforts tackled line departments of government among them Egypt s attempt to improve tax collection and Saudi Arabia s work to improve service delivery and bill collection Some of these reform efforts were more successful than others This book examines both the good and the bad looking not only at what each reform accomplished but at how it was implemented The result is a series of useful lessons on how public sector reforms can be adopted in MENA
