Hoop History

1895, and winter was coming on. James Naismith is boss had given him a job to do. He was to invent a game to play in the gym where he taught. The boys played basketball in the spring. However, it was too hot to play outside.

Many games for the winter. He tried indoor forms of basketball. The boys got hurt when they ran into walls and each other or threw the ball through windows. Naismith decided on a game with no running, no kicking, and no contact.

One morning, Naismith's eighteen students found a basketball that he had posted on the gym door. The rules described a whole new game. The boys walked into the gym. They saw the school janitor hanging a peach basket from a balcony. Their teacher brought out a soccer ball. The boys began playing the new game. The goal of their game was to throw the soccer ball into the peach basket. The rules said they could not run while holding the ball. The only way to move the ball was to pass it. They also were not allowed to hit each other as they would in football.

4 Only one player scored a point in the first game. When he tossed the ball into the peach basket, the basket fell to the floor and the ball came out.
