Low-Income Homeownership Nicolas P. Retsinas,Eric S. Belsky,2004-05-28 A generation ago little attention was focused on low income homeownership Today homeownership rates among under served groups including low income households and minorities have risen to record levels These groups are no longer at the margin of the housing market they have benefited from more flexible underwriting standards and greater access to credit However there is still a racial ethnic gap and the homeownership rates of minority and low income households are still well below the national average This volume gathers the observations of housing experts on low income homeownership and its effects on households and communities The book is divided into five chapters which focus on the following subjects homeownership trends in the 1990s overcoming borrower constraints financial returns to low income homeowners low income loan performance and the socioeconomic impact of homeownership      The Annual American Catalog ,1910      The Annual American Catalog, 1909 ,1910
