The 2002 Season at Tall al 'Umayri and Subsequent Studies Larry G. Herr, Douglas R. Clark, Lawrence T.

Geraty, 2019-06-24 This eighth volume of the Madaba Plains Project's excavations at Tall al Umayri covers the important finds of the 2002 season updating and synthesizing the work that has been done to date. Accompanied by more than two hundred illustrations, it includes a summary of the cumulative results of all excavation seasons from 1984 through 2002 with a detailed description of the various levels that have been discovered. The contributions to this volume discuss at length the results of the 2002 season specifically in fields B, H, and L, which helped to clarify the stratigraphy of the site and contributed to the long-term objectives of the excavation, in particular the goal of elucidating the cycles of intensification and abatement of habitation and land use at and around the site with a view to understanding how Umayri influenced and participated in these processes. In addition to the editors, the contributors to this volume include John W. Betlyon, Kent V. Bramlett, Julie L. Cormack, Marcel den Nijs, David C. Hopkins, Gloria London, Kevin Nick, and Monique D. Vincent. Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention ... United Mine Workers of America, 1919. Shifting Paradigms in International Investment Law Steffen Hindelang, Markus Krajewski, 2016-01-21 International investment law is in transition. Whereas the prevailing mindset has always been the protection of the economic interests of individual investors, new developments in international investment law have brought about a paradigm shift. There is now more than ever before an interest in a more inclusive, transparent, and public regime. Shifting Paradigms in International Investment Law addresses these changes against the background of the UNCTAD framework to reform investment treaties. The book analyses how the investment treaty regime has changed and how it ought to be changing to reconcile private property interests and the state's duty to regulate in the public interest. In doing so, the volume tracks attempts in international investment law to recalibrate itself towards a more balanced, less isolated, and increasingly diversified regime. The individual chapters of this edited volume address the contents of investment agreements, the system of dispute settlement, the interrelation of investment agreements with other areas of public international law, constitutional questions, and new regional perspectives from Europe, South Africa, the Pacific Rim Region, and Latin America. Together, they provide an invaluable resource for scholars, practitioners, and policymakers.
